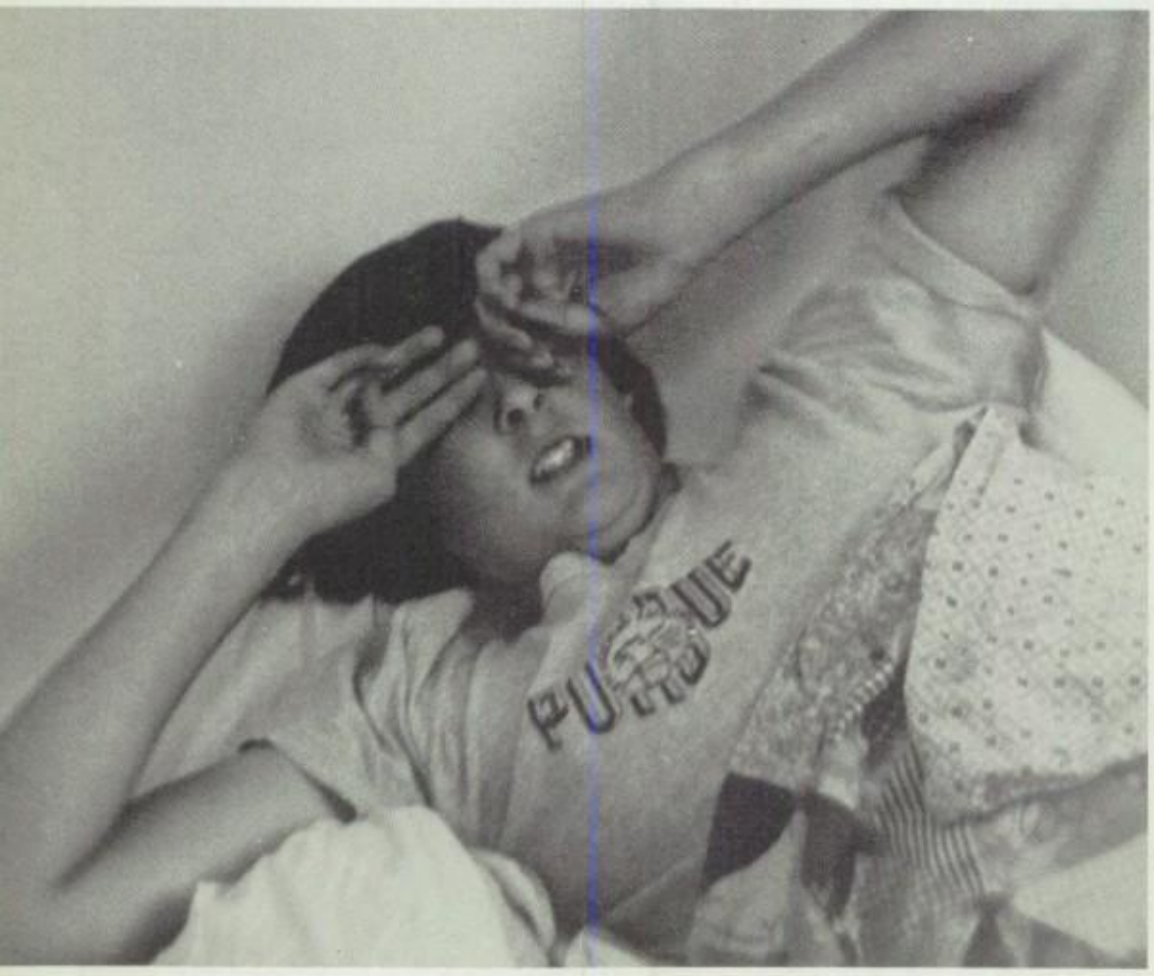
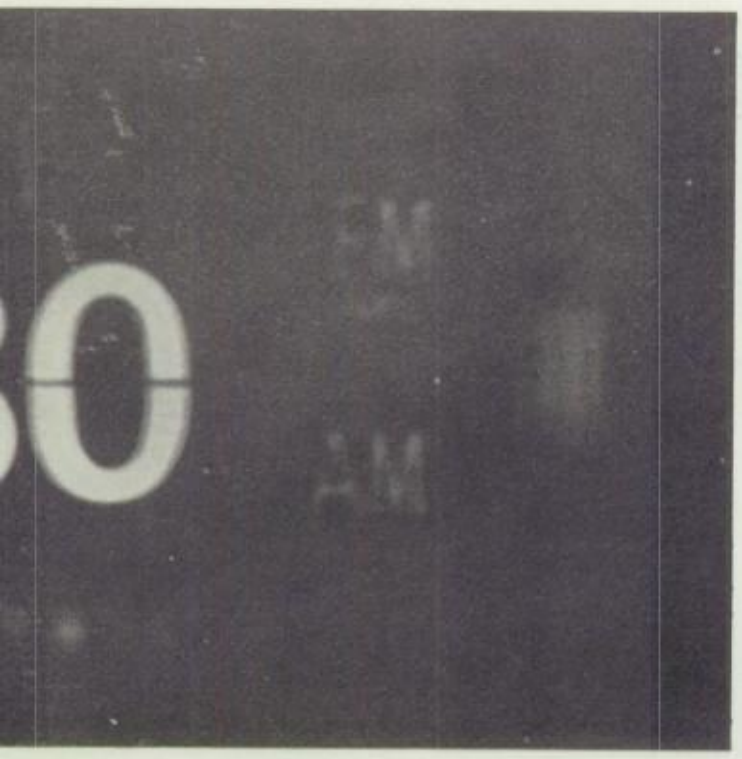
The Day Begins...





Arden,
That was funny
when you got sent up front for being rowdy. I also liked your movie in English
Have a fantastic summer.

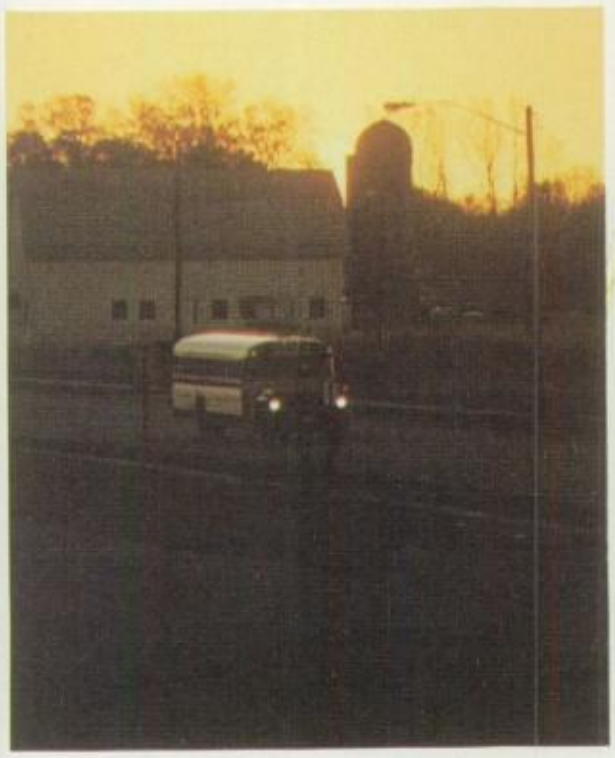
Dawn...



"It has been observed . . . that if the last 50,000 years of man's existence were divided into lifetimes of approximately sixty-two years each, there have been about 800 such lifetimes. Of these 800, fully 650 were spent in caves.

Only during the last seventy lifetimes has it been possible to communicate effectively from one lifetime to another — as writing made it possible to do. Only during the last six lifetimes did masses of men ever see a printed word. Only during the last four has it been possible to measure time with any precision. Only in the last two has anyone anywhere used an electric motor. And the overwhelming majority of all the material goods we use in daily life today have been developed within the present, the 800th, lifetime."
Alvin Toffler, Future Shock

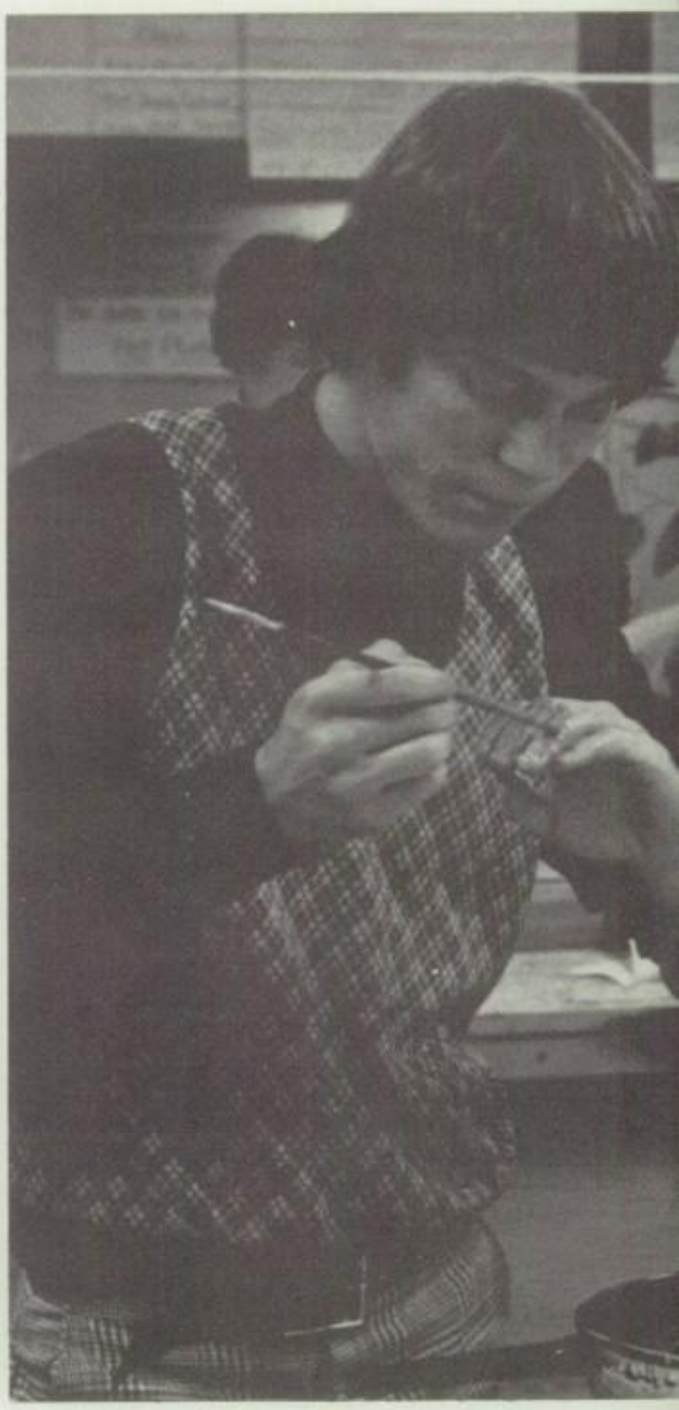
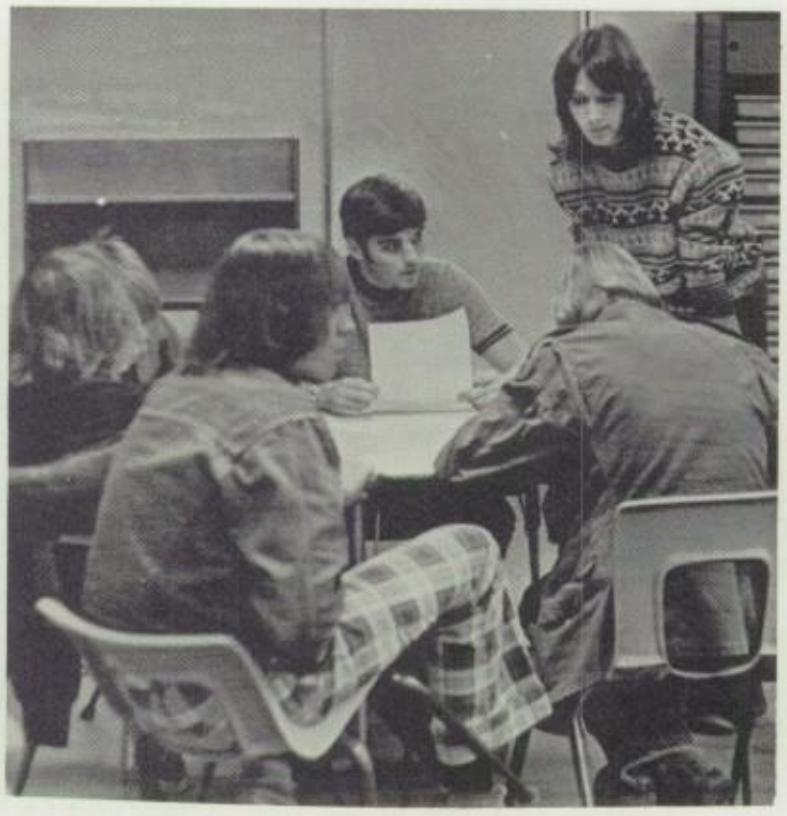
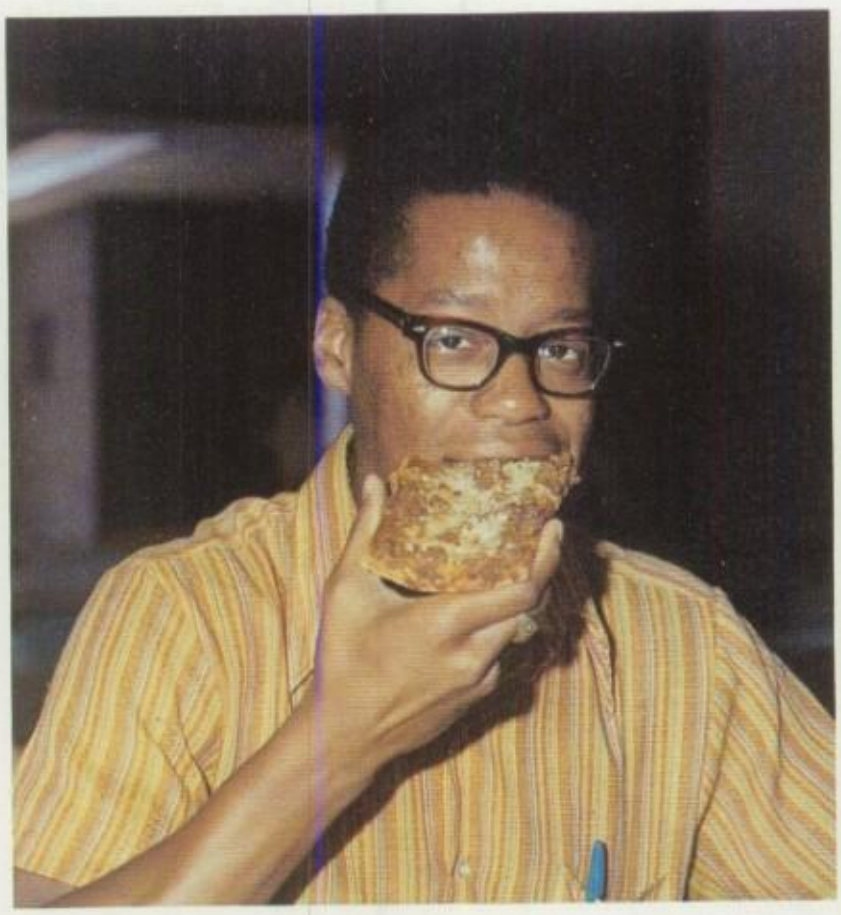
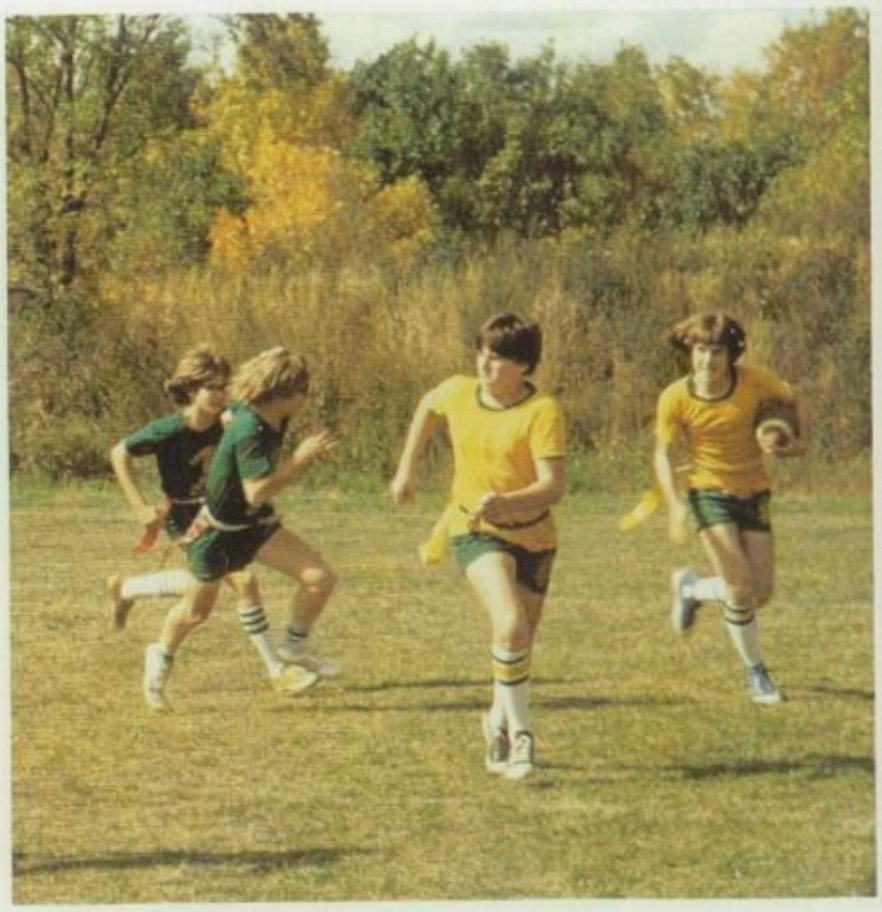
Morning...

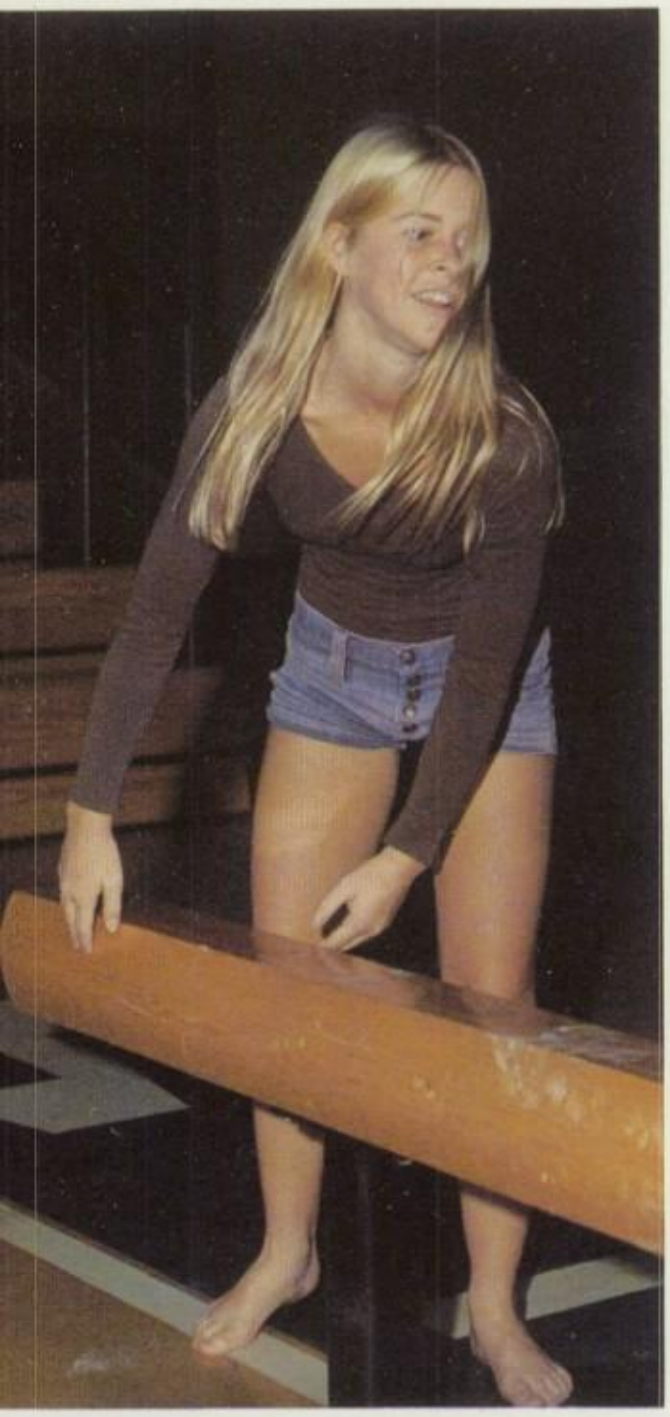




Lunch Break...







"Nowadays almost exclusive stress is laid on learning what has happened and has been done. Tomorrow ... at least one third of all lectures and exercises ought to be concerned with scientific, technical, artistic, and philosophical work in progress, anticipated crises and possible future answers to these challenges."
Robert Jungk, philosopher

"I am a needle worker all my life. I am seventy-seven years old, and I want to get what I didn't get in my youth. I want to know about the future. I want to die an educated man!"
Charles Stein in Future Shock

Afternoon...

you little whimp dll see you next year
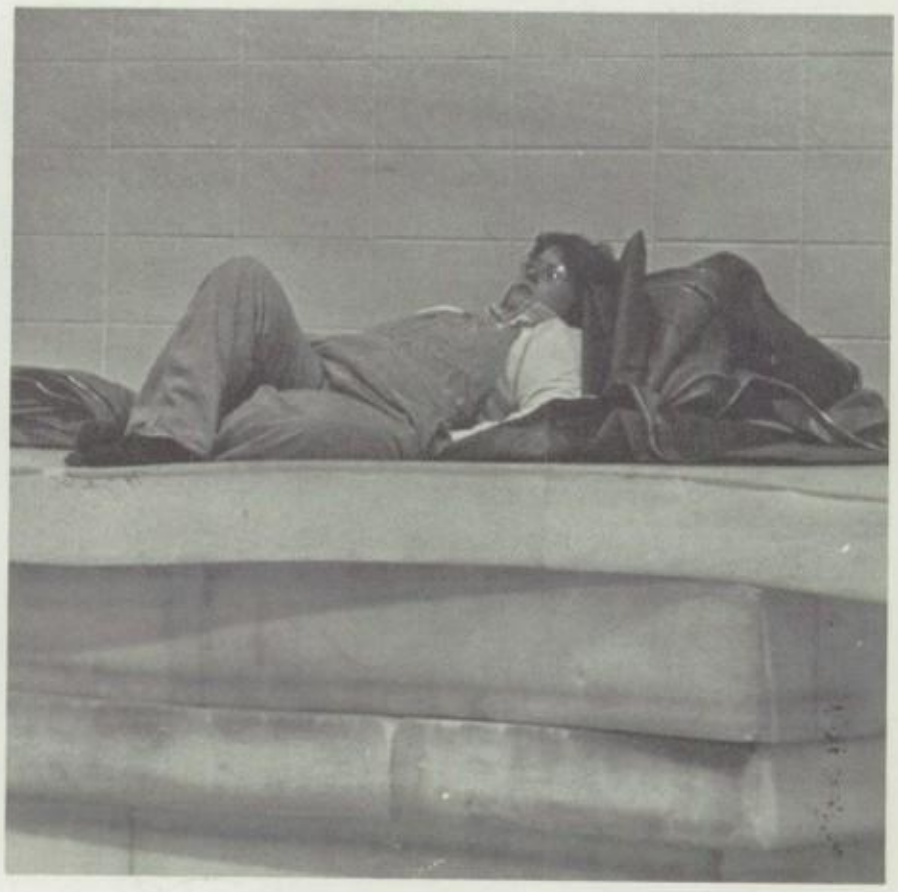
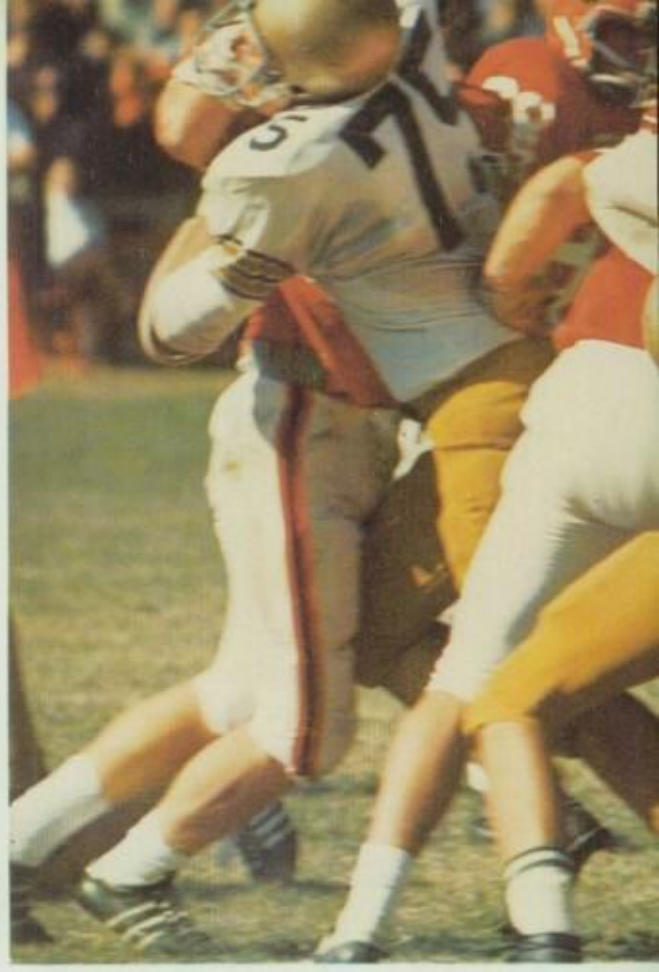
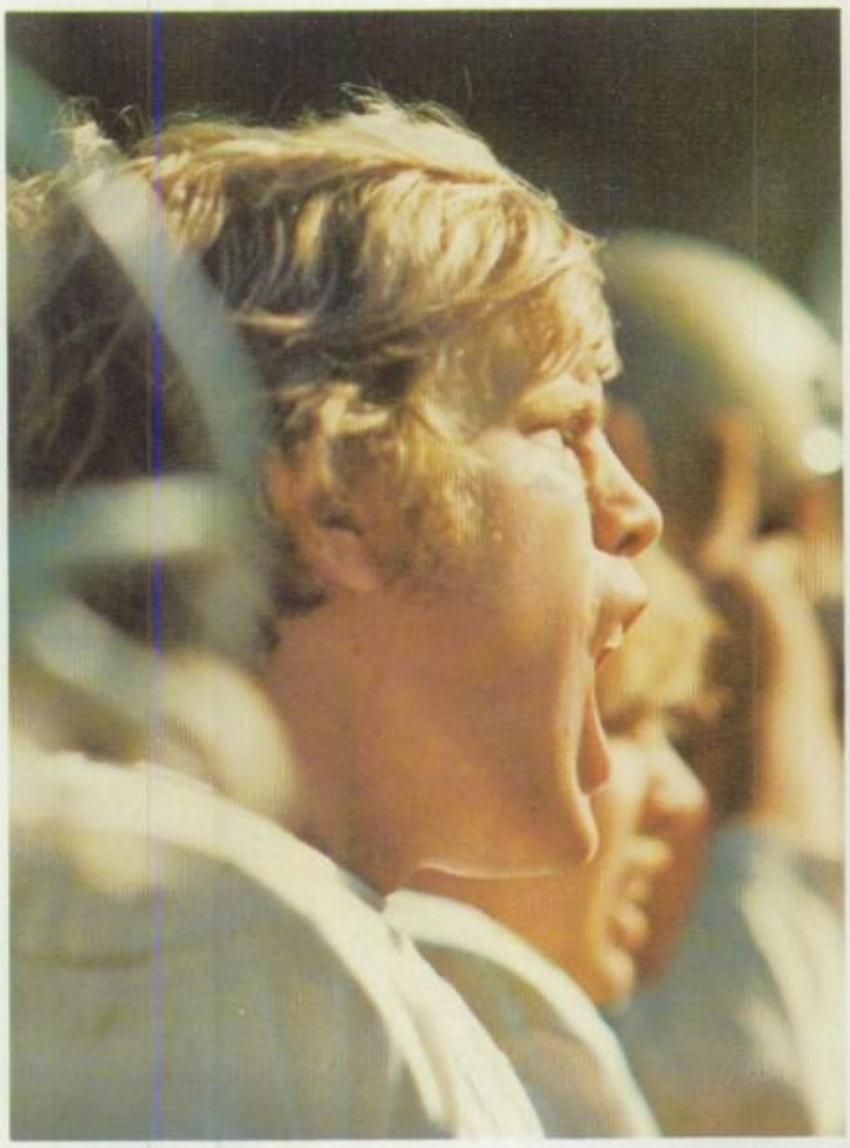
Mike Jones



Evening...





The faster the pace of life, the more rapidly the present environment slips away from us, the more rapidly do future potentialities turn into present reality. As the environment churns faster, we are not only pressured to devote more mental resources to thinking about the future, but to extend our time horizon — to probe further and further ahead.

The driver dawdling along an expressway at twenty miles per hour can successfuly negotiate a turn into the exit lane, even if the sign indicating the cut-off is very close to the exit. The faster he drives, however, the further back the sign must be placed to give him the time needed to read and react. In quite the same way, the generalized acceleration of life compels us to lengthen our time horizon or risk being overtaken and overwhelmed by events.
Alvin Toffler, Future Shock

Faculty was . . .

During their senior year the graduating class not only looks to the future but also looks to the past. As the seniors grow older they will reflect back on their high school years. Some memories are sure to be; "Remember when we pulled the fire alarms during the day to get out of a test?" Or how about the time we stuffed all the bubblers with paper so that they would shoot out all over people?" "How about when the streakers ran out in front of the buses after school?" "Or do you remember when we cut classes and went to senior skip day in the park?"

Other memorable moments could be the time we won our first conference basketball game, or the time we had our first Spartan Spirit Week, or the time Joey Edmonds came back to visit Oshkosh. Some might even remember the year we tied for the conference football title.

These and many other memories can be recalled by students of every grade level, but they are especially treasured by the seniors of 1975.

"Every society has its own characteristic attitude toward the past, present and future. This time-bias formed in response to the rate of change, is one of the least noticed, yet most powerful causes of social behavior, and it is clearly reflected in the way the society prepares its young for adulthood . . .

. . . the past crept forward into the present and repeated itself in the future. In such a society, the most sensible way to prepare was to arm him with the skills of the past — for these were precisely the same skills he would need in the future . . .

. . . and then time stops. The school is silent about tomorrow . . . . . Time comes racing to an abrupt halt. The student is focused backward instead of forward. The future, banned as it were from the classroom, is banned from his consciousness as well. It is as though there were no future."

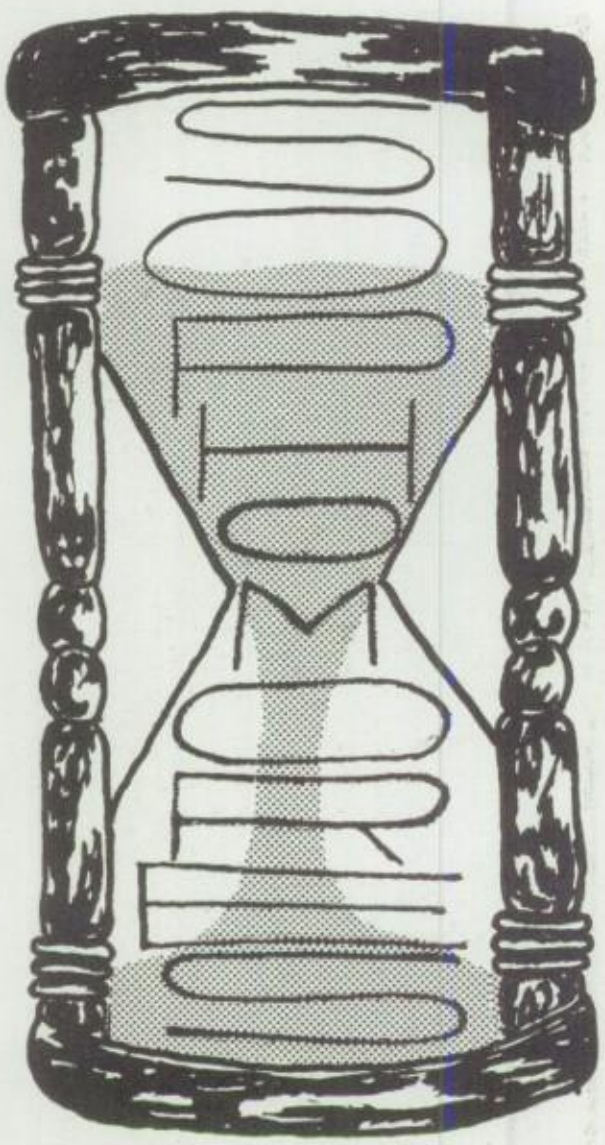
Does North Provide For Your Needs?



"Last year things you learned were forced upon you; now as a sophomore I'm learning more as I wish to learn." (Randy Kriegel) . . . "Yes, the first year you don't really know what's happening, the second year you realize what you're really there for." (Mary Borden) . . . "No, I don't think I have to learn anything; I'm a genius." (Jeff Flanagan) . . . "I think in just attending any school if you learn nothing else you learn how to deal with other people." (Patti Andresen) . . . "In some classes; some teachers don't care if you learn or not and therefore you don't want to learn." (Linda Miller) . . . "Gym class is super boring because we do the same thing over and over each year; otherwise classes offered are excellent." (Jayne Albee) . . . "Not really because of the atmosphere of this school. I feel my learning abilities are impaired." (Rhonda Jahnke) . . . "I think that a lot of the things we are taught we will never use, but I have harder classes this year than any other year." (Martha Grant) . . . "No, not really, all the classes you can take are all so general." (Cathi Case) . . . "No, cause I have biology and I don't really understand where in the future we'll need to know how to grow bacteria, and what kingdom, phylum, species, etc., man or anything else is in." (Debbie Schwebke).

With the abolishment of study halls, freshmen began their high school careers with a feeling of greater freedom. Keeping with tradition, the freshmen were initiated to North by being put on bubblers, made up with hair spray for I.D. pictures, and experiencing the typical name calling.

Fresh from middle school, these freshmen have three more years of experience and growing awaiting them.

In the words of Alvin Toffler, "... we have broken irretrievably with the past. We have cut ourselves off from the old ways of thinking, of feeling, of adapting. We have set the stage for a completely new society and we are now racing toward it." (FUTURE SHOCK)

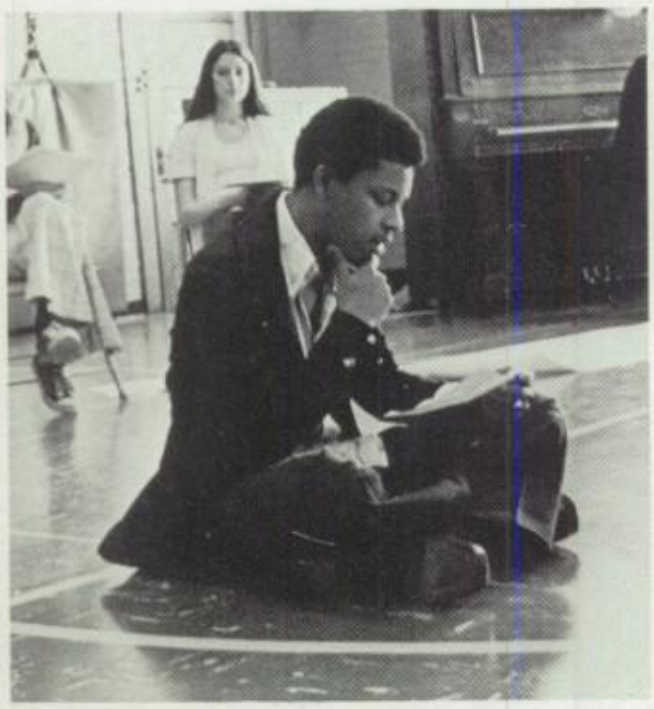
The ABC (A Better Chance) Program was a national organization that transferred students to a school of better opportunity. Its prime objective was to provide a better high school education in preparing for college.

This year Oshkosh hosted 12 ABC students. Seniors Quintin Peterson and Gaylen Brown, junior Armenrah Loving, and sophomore Dennis Williams attended North while the others were enrolled at West or Lourdes Academy. Most students were selected as sophomores and stayed at the same location until graduation.

ABC: Dennis Williams, Q. Peterson, A. Loving, G. Brown.



On an outing for Creative Dramatics class, ABC student senior Quintin Peterson read to an audience of elementary school children.

AFS Student

From the ever-expanding AFS (American Field Service) Program, North received Celia Moreno, better known as Tita, from Concepción, Chile. Using New York City as headquarters, countries exchanged students for the purpose of experiencing different life styles.

To get in on the exchange, the student had to apply one year ahead of time.

When asked about her experiences at North Tita said: "My experiences in Oshkosh North were marvelous. All the people I met here I will remember with much love."

By presenting gifts, North warmly welcomed Senior Tita Moreno.

FBLA, Bottom Row: N. Judkins, J. Fletcher, Peggy Larson, Mrs. P. Rickman. Row Two: D. Kiefer, S. Baker, Q. Koelbl. Row Three: V. Beck, J. Schultz, M. Trudeau, D. Faust, C. Kunde, K. Miller.

FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) is a national organization which provided an opportunity for business students to become better business leaders. With senior Quinn Koelbl giving dictation, FBLA members met monthly on Tuesday nights. Various speakers, socials, and parties were some of the activities at the meetings.

Senior Nancy Judkins worked in the school store during her open hours.

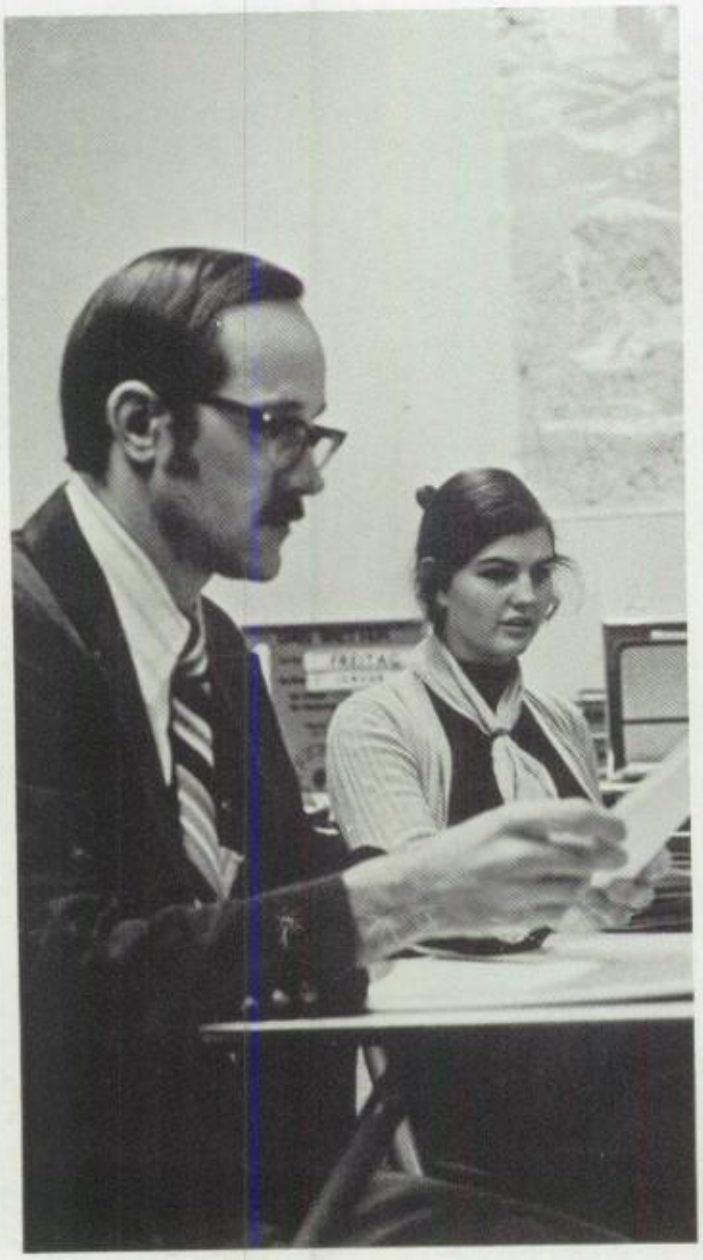
SALES AND MARKETING

Managing the business of Sales and Marketing was senior Harry Barkelar. Full-time activities of the members included managing the school store, holding bake sales and sponsoring a school spirited sweater sale. Field trips to Green Bay, to local businesses, and to a conference in Green Lake required the members to put in overtime.

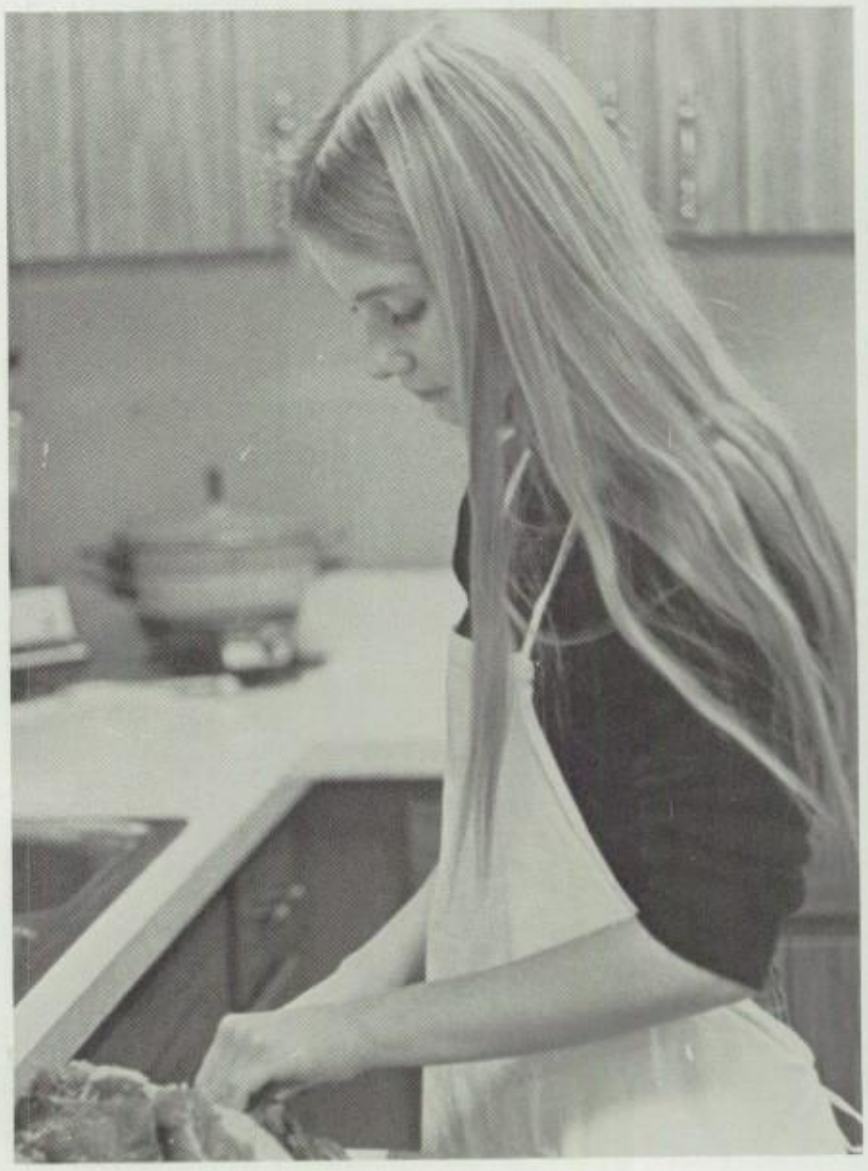
GERMAN

A state convention held at Oshkosh West, and a profitable candy sale occupied the time for German Club members. Topping off the year was a trip to Germany in March by the sophomore president, Mitch Danner, and two other students.

Kline, J. Laine, B. Radley, G. Guenther, Mr. R. Swanson.



Senior Joni Kuether listens while Mr. Ron Swanson temporarily presided over the German Club meeting.



The French Club enjoyed a hearty meal of this unfortunate animal being prepared by sophomore Joan Kivlin for their Christmas feast.

SPANISH

A Christmas party, bake sales, and a Halloween party, featuring a pinata, kept Spanish Club's program full. Films of different countries were seen by members to gain a better understanding of the world. To end the year in a Spanish way, junior president Sandy Franzen and the members planned a trip to Mexico.

FRENCH

This year's French Club activities were bake sales, a car wash, sale of M&M's and a Christmas cooking dinner. The money collected from these events was used for a spring trip to Canada. Because of interrupted lunch hours, senior president Tracy Harcourt held meetings before school hours.

French, Bottom Row: S. Ellingsen, Lynn Oleson, J. Kivlin, M. Moore, P. Winkler, A. Larson, M. Walsh. Row Two: C. Moreno, C. Hoberg, W. Reinert, V. Bhatia, L. Bradley, T. Redlin, Lori Oleson, D. Werner, T. Harcourt, S. Kutz. Row Three: J. Stenson, C. Sloey, D. Schmidt, Caren Augustine, J. Kline, D. Bahr, K. Vickery, C. Roeder, K. Pung, E. Challoner.

MU SIGMA CHI

As president of Mu Sigma Chi (Math Science Club) senior Steve Golz led members in several activities. They planned an overnight field trip to Minneapolis-St. Paul and sponsored the math contest, which included prizes for the highest scores. They also sponsored the finalists in the M.A.A. (Mathematical Association of America) tests.

Mu Sigma Chi, Sitting: C. Beck. Standing: Dorothy Holzer, T. Harcourt, K. McAuliffe, J. Sherron, B. Johnson, D. Larson, T. Harvey, Scott Decker, S. Golz, K. Bidwell, K. Cox, Sandy Warner, K. Ghei.

Senior Cathy Shugars read the secretary's report as Mr. Ely looked on.

Student Association met weekly during the year under the leadership of senior Pete Thiel. The Student Bill of Rights was one of the many school related issues discussed at these meetings. Some of the committees that took shape during the year included the Dance Committee, Curriculum Committee, and the All School Enrichment Committee. A new idea introduced by Student Association was the election of members to the North Forum which replaced the Governing Board.

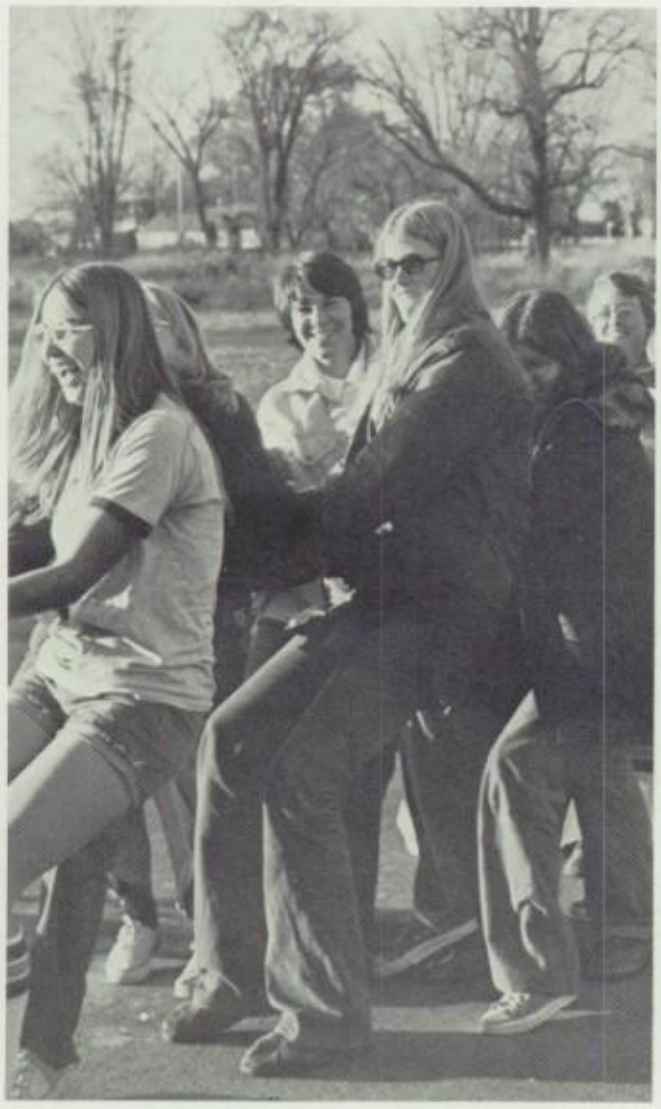
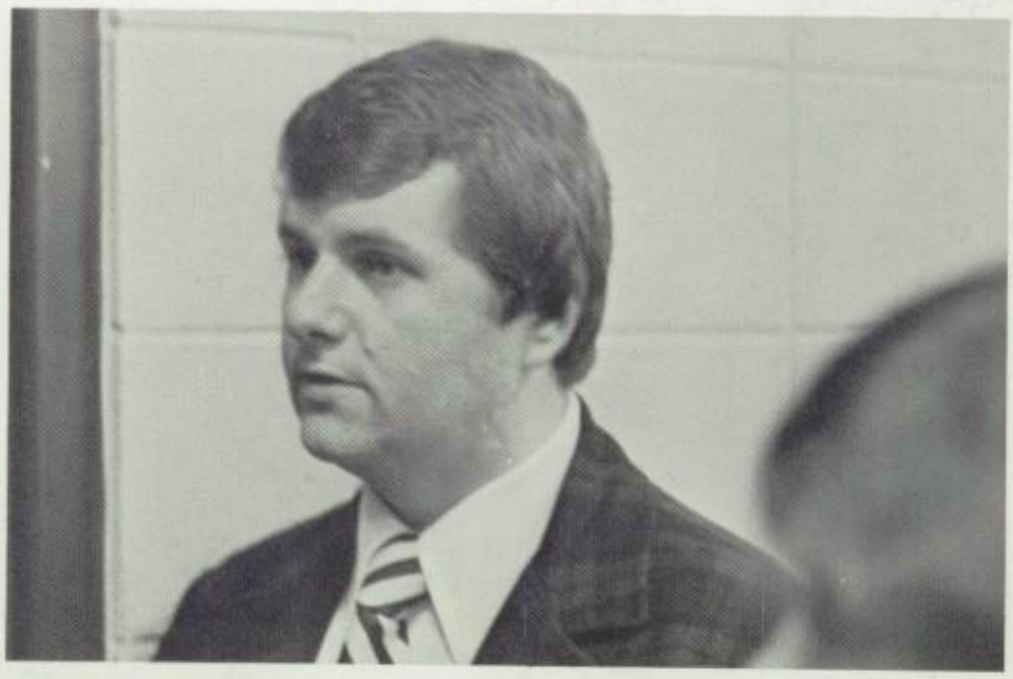
Law, Bottom Row: J. Hogue, Peggy Larson, L. Schaefer, A. Pollex, S. Pable. Row Two: Mr. H. Carver, K. Ghei, K. Bidwell, S. Butcher, A. McIlree, Steve Warner, T. Bloechl, D. Larson, W. Shugars, S. Schilcher, M. Anderson, T. Harvey, G. Witzke, J. Berens, R. Chase.



It proved to be a test of might when Student Association sponsored a tug of war for Spartan III Week.



Gary Goyke, candidate for the State Senate, was one of the guest speakers that Law Club managed to bring to North. Duties of position were some of the topics of discussion during these meetings.

LAW

Students interested in the government could join the newly organized Law Club, governed by senior Tim Bloechl. Various local candidates were brought in as guest speakers for all those who were interested. As a way of involving students in political affairs, Law Club held a mock election.

Field trips to courthouses throughout the state were made possible by bake sales and T-shirt sales.

NORTH WINDS

Entertaining for the football and basketball games until halftime was the North Winds. North Winds, an all-volunteer group under the direction of senior Becky Vogt, added spirit to the game with lively music. Practice sessions were held after school and before games.

North Winds, Bottom Row: R. Vogt, J. Beacham, A. Hoffman, J. Granger. Row Two: N. Judkins, C. Fuchs, K. Redlin, D. Ostendorf, D. Stoll, Dean Glaze, R. Snyder. Row Three: A. Gosz, C. Hessefort.

During halftime at a basketball game, senior Paul Martin beat his drums in time with the band.

DIXIELAND BAND

Dixieland Band, a newly formed, non-profit group, brought a new style of jazz to North. Most performances were accompanied by the Jazz Band. The Pioneer, and the Variations Concert were some of their scheduled appearances.

MADRIGALS

Many community organizations enjoyed the musical talents of the Madrigal group. Christmas programs, Winter Frolics and the solo-ensemble contest were some of their scheduled events of the year.

The Madrigal Singers entertained senior citizens at the FMC Christmas party.

Jazz Band member junior Norbert Hessefort practiced with the band in preparation for an upcoming performance.

JAZZ BAND

Performing mainly for the community was Jazz Band, directed by Mr. L. Wolter. The band was often accompanied by a guest soloist. Jazz Band met 7th hour to practice for performances at the Pioneer, Park Plaza, and the Eau Claire Jazz Festivals.

POM POM

Senior co-captains Nancy Robertson and Ellen Truyman led the Pom Pom squad during the halftime performances for the Spartans and Titans. Bake sales, slave auctions, car washes and a spirit line during Spartan III Week were some of the various ways the squad brought spirit to the student body.

Senior Ellen Truyman stepped in time to the music in leading the Pom Pom squad through their performance during halftime.

FLAG TWIRLERS

Audiences during football and basketball games were entertained at halftime by the Flag Twirlers. Seeing that the routines were learned and performed correctly were senior co-captains Pat Monroe and Mary Angle.

DRAMA

Actors in the school were directed by senior Mike Holland. They put on a Reader's Theatre production of "USA." To make money they had numerous bake sales, and sold tickets for their productions. Drama Unlimited presented the opportunity for amateurs to participate in and explore the field of drama.

In the drama production of "USA," senior Jim Helm recited his lines to junior Cheryl Pagel.

HONOR SOCIETY

Polaris Honor Society, under the leadership of senior Dave Seefeld, consisted of seniors with high grade points. Some members were given the opportunity to experience a different school when student exchanges took place between North, West, and Lourdes Academy. Serving refreshments at Open House, organizing bake sales, and sponsoring a chile supper and a senior class trip to Chicago filled their agenda for the year.

FMC

Members of FMC (Future Medical Careers) held a Christmas party for senior citizens. Each guest received a gift donated by the students and faculty. Guest speakers and field trips to medical institutions also occupied members' time. Head surgeon sophomore Carolyn Ziesemer supervised the operation of exploring medical career opportunities.

Two elderly women watched attentively to the entertainment provided to them at the FMC Christmas Party. The party took place in the commons during school hours.

AFS

Celia Moreno, better known as Tita, was North's foreign exchange student from Chile. She joined the other AFS members in holding candy and bake sales throughout the year. Along with the president sophomore Tammy Vesperman, the members sponsored an AFS (American Field Service) weekend in November for 10 other AFS students from the Milaukee area.

AFS students Janait Shahankary and Yoshie Nakagawa, were given a tour of the Oshkosh B'Gosh factory as part of their weekend stay. AFS hosted eight other members from the Milwaukee area at this time.

FFA

FFA (Future Farmers of America) plowed the way for students who generally enjoyed working with plants and animals. The group, led by Linda Ziemer, planted trees and provided flowers fo school occasions and community groups. Fund raising activities included a donkey basketball game and seed, cheese, candy, and mum sales.

FHA-HERO

Head chef Larry King directed the members of FHA-HERO (Future Homemakers of America-Home Economic Related Occupation) in bake sales, stationery sale and luncheons served to local groups throughout the year. The group also sponsored a fall rally which was attended by four area schools and one state officer.

Seniors Karla Jorgensen and Dave Wood, members of FHA-HERO, prepared a dessert for a luncheon.

KEY

Students interested in helping the community and the school joined Key Club. Headed by sophomore Randy Kriegel, the club sponsored a food drive for Thanksgiving.

Key, Bottom Row: A. Gosz, J. Genal, J. Behlman. Row Two: J. Goltz, D. Williamson, C. Laabs, P. Sonnleitner, K. Sonnleitner. Row Three: J. Johnson, R. Kriegel, J. Weber, D. Berner.

PEP

Pep Club, whose goal was to produce school spirit, was "fired up" through the leadership of senior Karen Reetz. Sign painting and pep rallies enabled them to achieve this goal. Spartan III Week kept them busy with powder puff football and Homecoming Court.

LETTERMEN

In handing out programs, collecting tickets, and seating people, the Letterman's Club, headed by senior John King, kept the athletic banquets running smoothly. Selling candy was a means of earning money for their expenses.

North Star

The controversy over the lunch hour and the new homeroom system, Titan Queen Larry Mahoney, basketball star Mickey Crowe and the new principal, Dr. Fred Lunenburg, were some of the current events featured in the school newspaper, The North Star. In the role of editor, Steve Scalpone supervised the hectic deadlines, making sure the paper was completed properly.

NORTH STAR and REFLECTION staff members devoured the goodies at their annual Thanksgiving feast.

Reflections

With the theme of "The Days of Future Past" the REFLECTIONS staff, headed by senior Joyce Hessefort, gathered information and pictures to compile this year's yearbook. The main objective was to relate activities in terms of day and night. The taking of individual pictures provided an opportunity for underclassmen to purchase their pictures while at the same time added new style to the book.

Student Prints

Students were able to publish their talents of writing and art through Student Prints, a school literary magazine. Using the unicorn as a symbol, editor Kiren Ghei and the staff gathered short stories and poems. Unlike the previous year, Student Prints was printed by professional printers. Advertisements and the selling of the magazine were its major sources of income.

STUDENT PRINTS, Sitting: K. Cox, E. Pennau, K. Ghei, L. Leitzke. Kneeling: L. Hunt, K. Bidwell, D. Roberts.

Senior Adrian Spanbauer taught the children a lesson on identification. Students took turns teaching lessons to children during playschool.

Closeness is a part of friendship as expressed by Cara and Kurt. Cara and Kurt were children who participated in the fall session of Playschool.

Home Ec. Gave Insight; Languages Developed Skills

Courses in Home Economics consisted of Family Living, Child Development, Consumer Education, Housing and Interiors, Clothing and Textiles, Foods and Nutrition, and Food Services.

Food Service class as a part of their class work and as a related activity provided a service to the school and community through their catering service. They served luncheons to the advisory committee and provided refreshments for the fall sports open house. The students received training for entry level jobs in the food service industry. In addition to their classwork the students have on-the-job training.

Family living classes promoted National Family Week (November 24-30). They encouraged other students to bring their parents to open house or to do something with their families.

Students in Clothing and Textiles fashioned recycling projects with old jeans and old scraps of material. A few of the things made were patchwork hats and blouses, jean skirts and jean purses.

Foods classes tried experimental cooking with soybeans. Soybean chili, chicken casserole, and beef strogenoff were foods the student made of soybeans. The purpose was to try soybeans as a meat substitute.

The Child Development classes conducted Playschool for 3 and 4 year olds from the community. Students studied children's development from birth until school entrance. The primary purpose of Playschool was to provide students with insight into the uniqueness of children and their growth and development; therefore, giving them a better understanding of their own individuality and person.

Housing and Interiors students studied the selections of a livable home with consideration of ecological factors in our society today. Students also considered the furnishings for the interior of the home.

Consumer Education studied the basics of credit, food, shelter, clothing, and insurance. Students also studied their rights and responsibilities in the marketplace in order to be better consumers in our challenging society.

Foreign language studies enabled a student to develop skills in the foreign language or languages he chose. The student became increasingly aware of the universality of human problems as he became familiar with a foreign language and culture.

The foreign language program was structured so that once a student began a study of a foreign language he could work in that language until he finished high school. North offered French I,II,III,IV; German I,II,III,IV; Latin I,II,III,IV; and Spanish I,II,III,IV.

Drying dishes, senior Scott Sorenson helped complete the cooking lab. Doing dishes was as much a part of the lab as cooking was.

Spanish students studied the Spanish dialect. Foreign language students became familiar with a foreign language and its culture.

German II student sophomore Marie Sawall responded to the question asked by Mr. Ronald Swanson as sophomore Mary Holland listened.

Senior Karla Jorgensen picked up the dirty dishes. Food Services provided a luncheon for the advisory committee.

Art, Business Prepared For Future

The Art program was planned to be a meaningful experience in the education of every student. Each individual was involved in producing a work of art.

Students interested in pursuing art enrolled in each of the general art courses (General Art I and II) followed by one or two years of Advanced Art.

Introduction to Business was a one-year course for students in grades 9 and 10. Students received instruction in areas such as banking, finance, record keeping, taxes, credit, insurance, and everyday law.

Bookkeeping I and II taught types of business ownership, keeping records, and problems relating to recording transactions of small business.

Personal typing students learned to control the keys without looking at them. Business-like letters and themes, or manuscripts, were emphasized. The main purpose was to learn to use the typewriter as a personal writing tool for home or school use.

Other courses in Business Education were Business Typing, Shorthand I and II, Clerical Techniques, Senior Office Procedures, Related Office Procedures, Business Machines, Introduction to Data Processing, Data Entry, Introduction to Computers, Data Processing Applications, Systems and Programming Concepts, Sales and Marketing I and II, Retailing, Business Law, and College Notetaking.

Sophomores Jill Harycki, Bobbi Whiting and Roxanne Voelker molded clay into unusual shapes.

Junior Tina Thomas buffed her ring. Jewelry was o of the many units in Art.

Concentrating on his typing problems, Bill Flood completed them with a hundred percent accuracy.

Junior Lori Lewellyn worked on her key punch project as junior Pam Stelter looked on. Data Entry helped students develop a proficiency on the key punch machine.

Junior Linda Gerth and sophomore Bruce Schnyder worked together on their art projects. Art was one class that let students "do their own thing."

History Gave Opportunities Science Developed Knowledge.

Senior Richard Chase, a Western Civilization student, taught his class a part of a unit on Alexander the Great. Richard wanted something different from the regular class study, so teacher John Zeinert suggested doing the four-day unit on Alexander the Great which was concluded with a test given by Chase. Western Civilization is the study of earliest man to 1870. Modern World History takes off from 1870 to today.

Contemporary Issues dealt with such issues as the draft question, amnesty, and euthenasia. The students researched the area of study and then on one day threw out what they had learned in a debate-type situation.

Psychology Visited Hospital

Psychology students took their yearly trip to the state hospital to observe behavior modification in the patients. Psychology provided the student with a general understanding of his psychological and physical "self", his own behavior, and the behavior of others.

Students Visited Courthouse

Political Science acquainted the student with the process and functions of American government. They also studied public issues as they arise. A venture to the Courthouse was one learning activity to better the students' understanding of the government.

Sociology involved the study of man and his environment. Minorities, the five institutions: (Religion, Family, Government, Education, Economy, and Social Stratification) were a few things studied. Geography of the Modern World, Physical Geography, and Action Polities were three other courses offered in the History department.

Science I, Basic Biology, Biology I and II, Chemistry I and II, Physics I and II, Environmental Problems, and Earth and Space Science were courses offered at North in Science. Two years of Science was required for graduation.

Science Stayed Current Science I involved seven different blocks of investigation: What's Up?, Well Being, Why You Are You?, Crusty Problems, Environmental Science, and Winds and Weather.

Biology I covered the major biological theories: cell theory, chromosome theory of heredity, and evolution. Ecology, reproductive cycles, conservation, and grouping of plants and animals are also taken into consideration.

Chemistry I studied the concepts of the atomic theory, periodic law, formula and equation writing, stoichiometry, ionizations and kinetic theory.

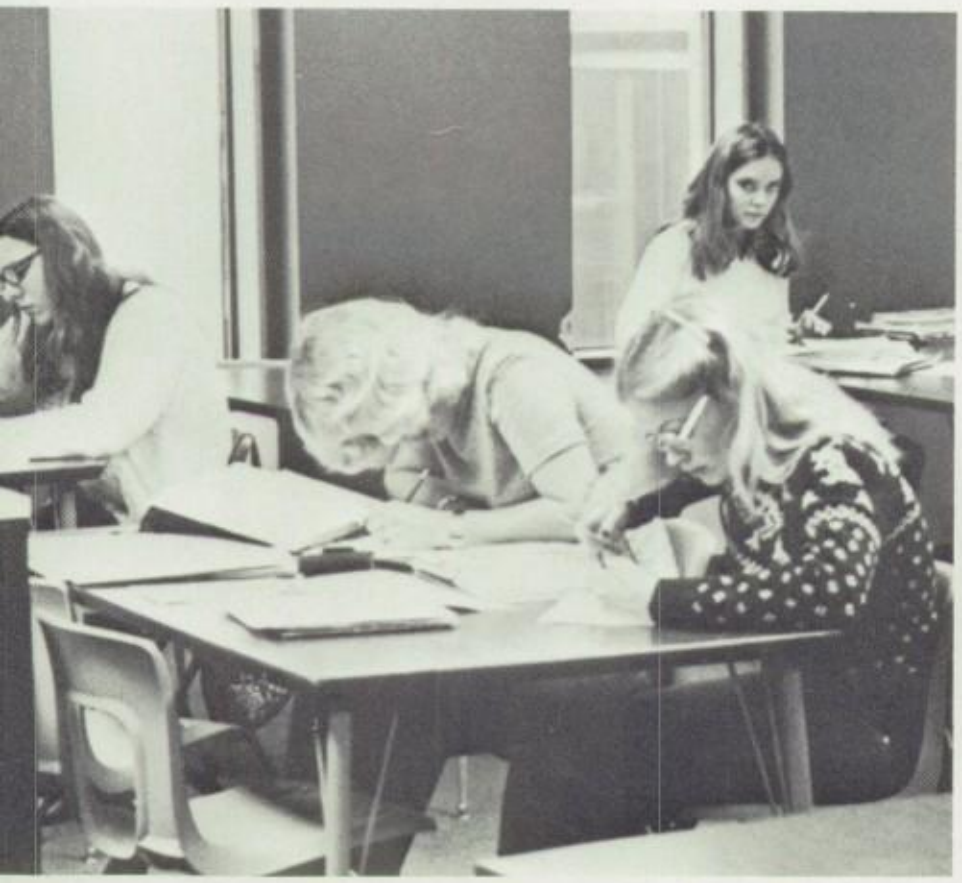
Physics I emphasized the humanistic, historical approach to physics. Basic units were Concepts of Motion, Motion in the Heavens, Energy, Fields and Waves, Models of the Atom, and the Nucleus.

Juniors Jan Harycki, Lisa Oleson, Karen Pankau, and Deb Madson worked together on their psychology assignment.

Biology I was mostly bookwork and taking notes as expressed by sophomore Steve Riegert.

Mr. David Morrison helped seniors Sally Elmer and Bonnie Bradley understand their project sheet. Project sheets was one way of exploring a unit of study.

U.S. History class was a required course for freshmen. Two credits of history was required for graduation.



Many history students were forced into history projects. But after they got into them they seemed to enjoy them.

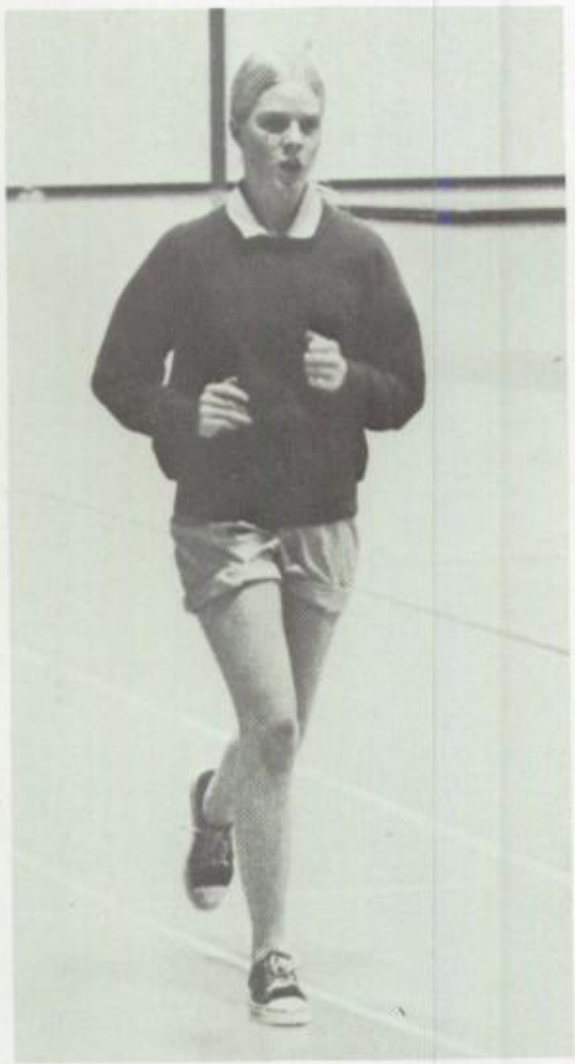
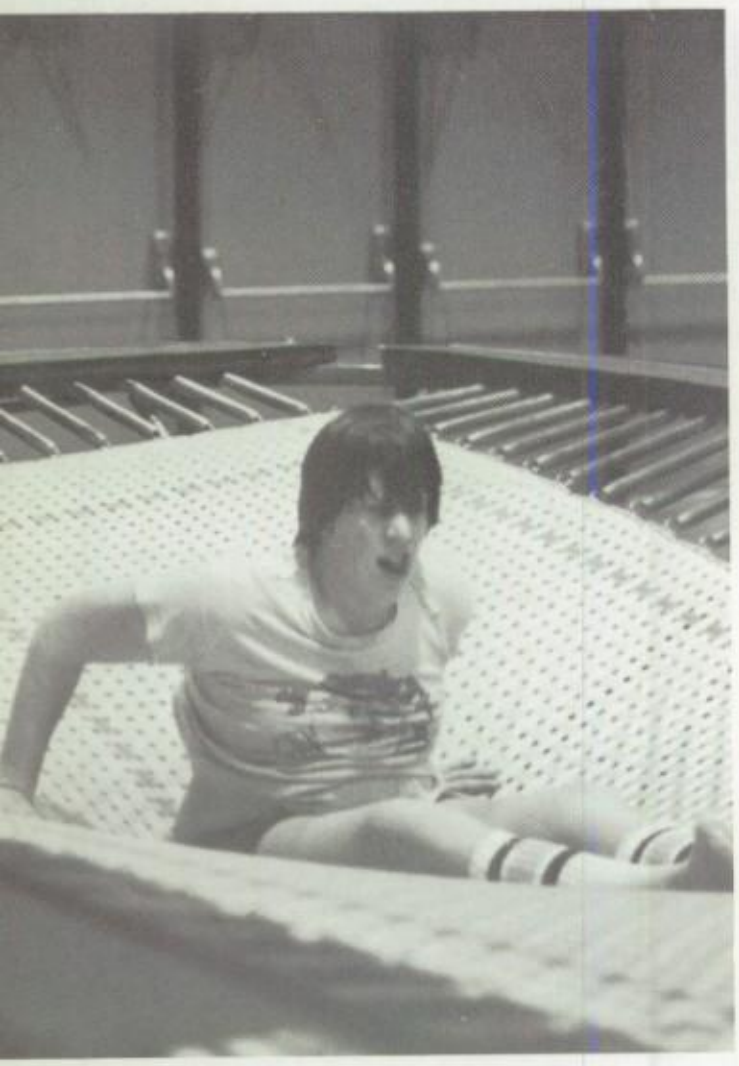
Mr. Akan showed sophomore Gary Holdren some pond organisms. Students studied the organisms under the microscope for a better understanding of pond life.



Sophomore Cathy Salsieder ran two laps before roll was taken. Running laps was a good warm up before class.

Plunging into the trampoline freshman Jim Williamson practiced his routine. The trampoline was part of the gymnastic unit.



English Furthered Development Physical Ed. Provided Exercise

October 12, the Oshkosh university drama department put on a special matinee of their fall production, "The Doll's House." All senior English students, English honors III students, English honors II students, and Drama students took part in the afternoon matinee at the Frederick March Theatre.

English I provided futher development of basic skills in reading, grammatical construction, spelling, writing, and listening. Emphasis was given to literature units as a means to aid the student in solving one of his most critical problems — the search for identity. An example of novels read were Shane, That was Then This is Now, and The Outsiders.

English II focused on the problems of the changing world as expressed in contemporary world literature. Some of the topics explored included minority cultures, the handicapped, modern warfare, and communication barriers. Also emphasized was a review of language skills, and extended composition writing. Novels explored were Hiroshima, The Contender, The Pearl, When the Legends Die, and Animal Farm. To accompany a unit on Indians the students saw the feature length film "When The Legends Die."

English III and English III Honors focused on American drama, poetry, short stories, and novels.

English IV was intended for college bound students with demonstrated proficiency in composition and literary comprehension. Students undertook in-depth studies of novels and plays by English and European writers. The theme in myth, epic, Greek and Shakespearean drama was also studied.

Effective speech was designed to help the student improve his ability to compose and deliver speeches by providing a variety of speaking situations.

Drama I's primary purpose was to let students find out about and participate in several areas of theatre-acting, directing and stagecraft.

Creative Dramatics is the dramatic expression that comes from within, rather than imitative expression that characterizes the typical play for public use.

Mass Media included brief units on communication, the newspaper, the visual media (television and movies), persuasion, the audio media, cartooning, and the history of journalism. First semester Mass Media students went to Green Bay and visited T.V. 11 to see the operation of a T.V. studio.

Newspaper Journalism included writing the news story; writing the feature story; writing the sports story; writing the editorial; writing headlines; editing copy; examining typefaces; examining legal making pictures; and organizing the newspaper.

Creative writing was designed to develop the power of accurate observation, to "stretch" the imagination, and to cultivate the use of fresh, vital language.

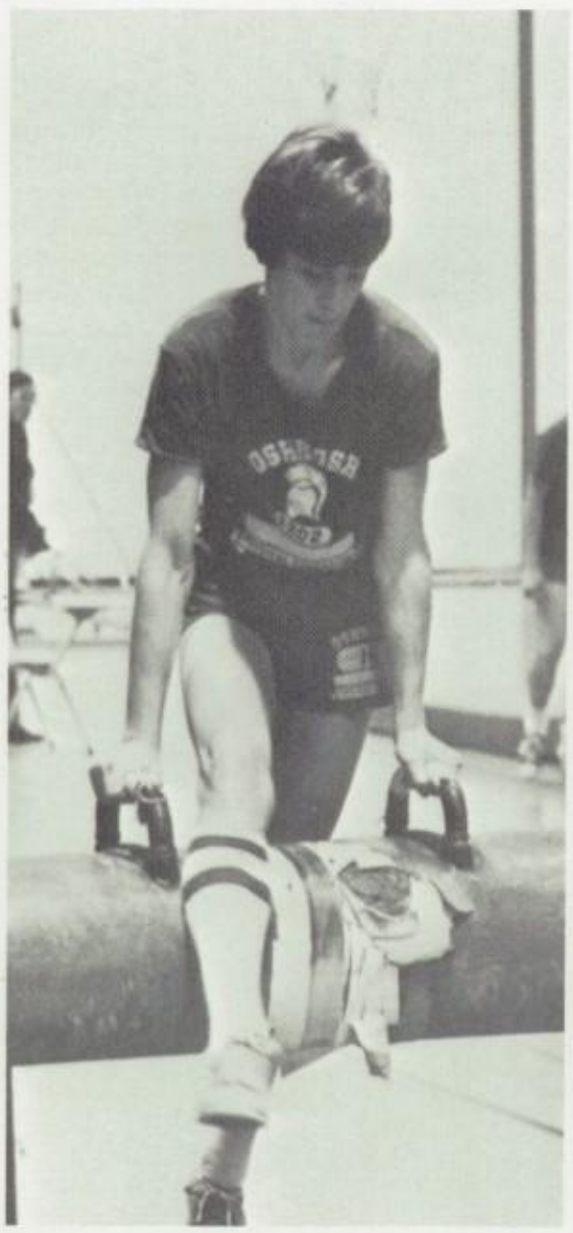
Other courses in English were College Reading, Forensics Workshop, Fundamentals of Debate, and Advanced Debate.

Freshmen, sophomore, and junior year Physical Education was required. Seniors had an option to take Lifetime sports. Physical Education helped develop coordination and keep an individual physiclly fit.

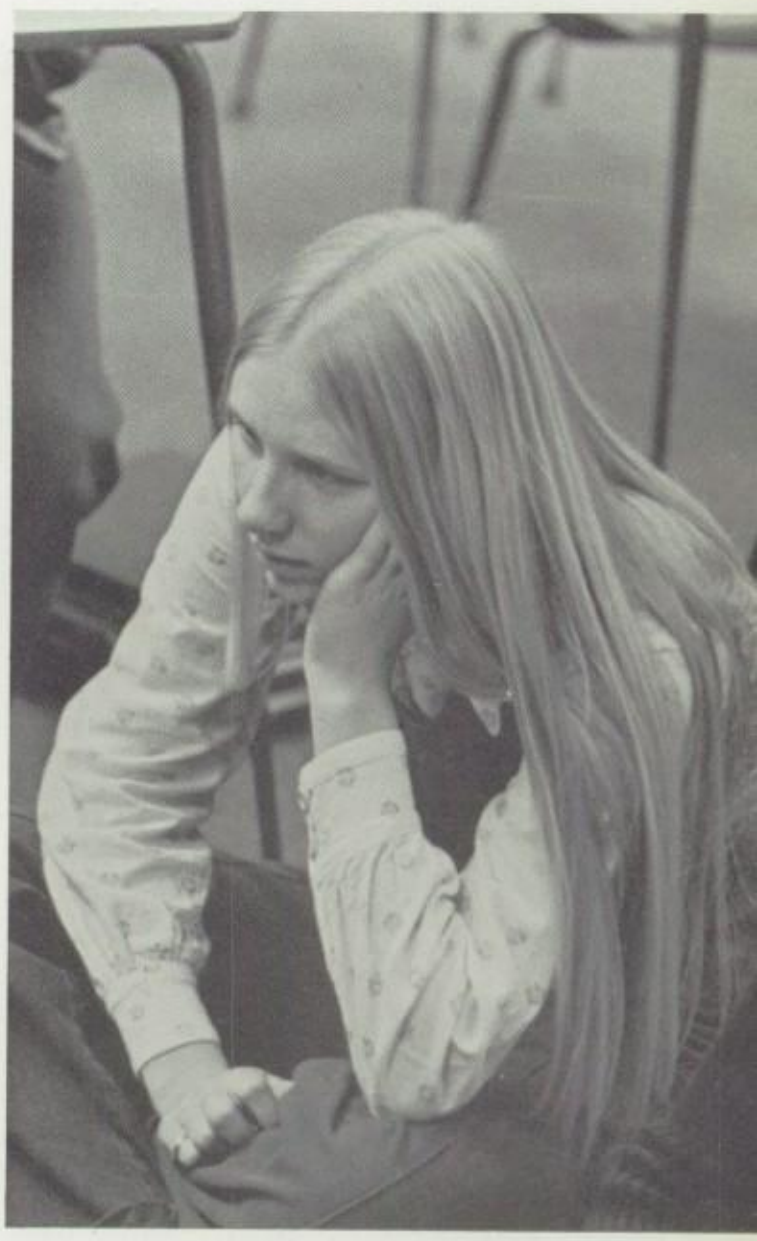
Reading his assignment junior Ron Bauer read Sherlock Holmes with interest.

Soap operas was one unit explored in Mass Media. Freshmen Dave Miller, Karen Williams, and Katie Englund created their own soap opera to get the idea of how it's done professionally.

Sophomore Jack Woodland and Patti Hartman conversed during English. English wasn't just the old grind; students also had time to socialize.



Doing a routine on the horse, freshman Jon Nielson used the concentration needed to complete his routine with accuracy.



Sophomore Karen Tschech used a comfortable position to listen to the English teacher.

Industrial Education, Math, Agriculture, Developed Skills.

All Industrial Education courses available to incoming freshmen were one semester in length. A ninth grader had a choice of six different one semester courses. A sophomore had a choice of nine different one semester courses. It was suggested that ninth and tenth graders explore several areas keeping in mind which course one might want as a senior and take those prerequisite courses.

Exploratory courses were Exploring Electricity/Electronics, Basic Metal Works, General Drafting, Power Mechanics, General Woodworking, and Graphic Arts-Printing. Intermediate courses were AC-DC Fundamentals, which introduced students to theories and concepts essential to understand all phases of electricity and electronics; General Metals and Auto Maintenance. Advanced courses were Electronic Communications, Applied Electronics, Machine Shop and Fabrication, Applied Metal Working, Architectural Drafting, Industrial Drafting, Auto Mechanics, Auto Service, Woodworking Technology, Building Construction, Graphic Arts-Photography and Lithography, and Airplane Construction which is offered at West High School.

Math Used Computer

Besides the everyday routine of assignments and lectures, math students had the opportunity to play computer games. Math IV did computer projects such as predicting the population of the world by the year 2000.

Chicago Trip Highlighted Year

A trip to Chicago was the highlight of Agri-business this year. The trip was originally a horticulture venture but was opened to all Agri-business classes because not enough horticulture students signed up. Students took in Hauserman's Orchid House, the Conservatory, and the Mueseum of Science and Industry.

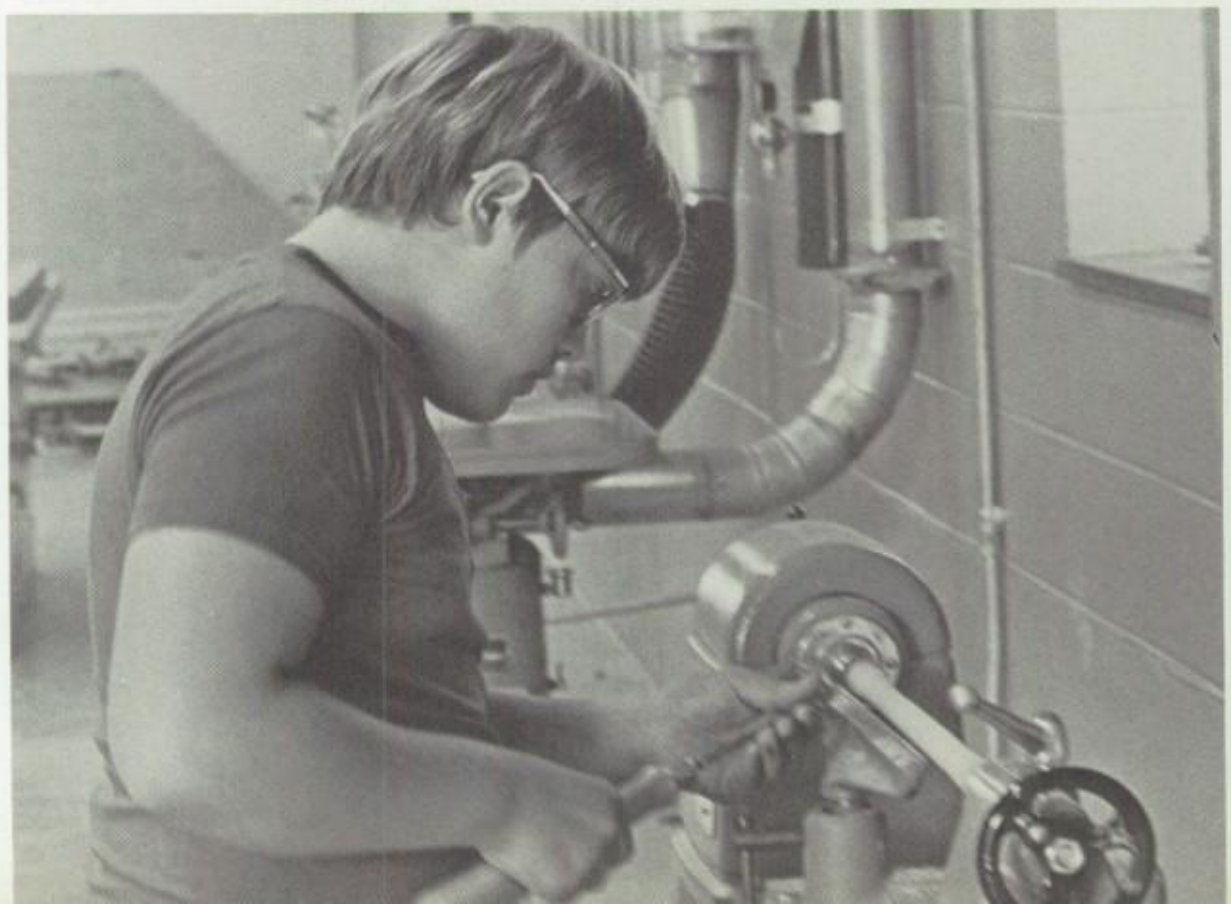
Horticulture students made terrariums this year which had never been done. Horticulture focused on the care, growth, and propagation of plants.

Landscaping class made plans to landscape Lakeside school. The course helped students understand some of the technical and scientific nature of soils and fertilizers. Landscape planning, landscape design, lawn development, were a few areas of study undertaken by the students. Meat and Dairy Products class studied breed characteristics, identification of parts of market animals and poultry, and meat cuts as well as meat and poultry slaughtering and processing techniques.

Farm Diesel and Hydraulics, Farm Machinery, Sand and Crop Management, Conservation and Wildlife, Conservation and Forestry, Agri-Business Management, Farm Management, and Independent Study in Agriculture were other courses in Agriculture available to students.

Mr. Mike McGinley instructed junior Sue Hannes on the fundamentals of learning how to drive. Behind the Wheel was an optional summer course taken after the required classroom course.

Tim Hummel, a sophomore, concentrated on his woodworking project. Tim, a drummer in Concert band, made drum sticks as a project.



Making corsages for open house, juniors Debbie Albee and Sally Cox, worked together. Horticulture class involved the students in growing flowers for school activities.

Senior Jon Gafner placed his finger in the soil to test whether the plant needed water. Horticulture gave students the opportunity to grow plants in the greenhouse.

Mrs. Wynne Guy instructed her class on how to find the volume of rectangle.

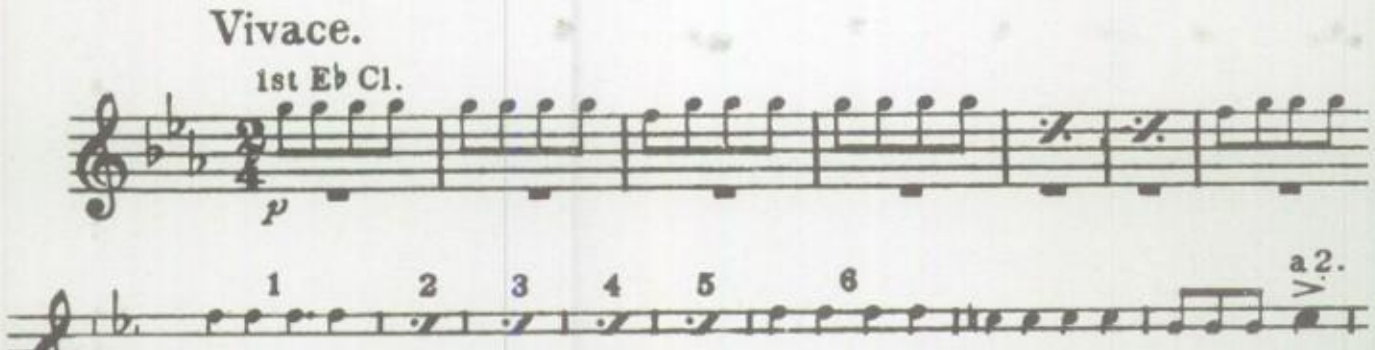
Preparing to cut a miter joint on the circular saw, senior Tom Lewis made a picture frame.

By dismantling a donated 1974 Belair from General Motors, students learned about the basic parts of the car.



Music Groups Displayed Talents

North's new orchestra instructor Louise Johnson helped members expand their music ability both literally and comprehensively. The orchestra's first concert was held in November followed by a Dec. 18 concert in conjunction with the choir. March 11, the orchestra presented the concert of the year, "Fantasia." A trip to Chicago was planned to see the Chicago Symphony.

"Variations," held Feb. 8, was the concert band's finest achievement of the year. Concert band was the highest band, while Spartan band was the next highest in rank. Spartan band provided the music for a Green Bay Bobcat game in Green Bay during January.

The whole music department combined in the yearly fruit sale held during December and the selling of Spartan pennants to raise money.

Choirs

North's A Cappella put on the musical "No, No Nanette," April 17, 18, and 19 in the Oshkosh Civic Auditorium. Mr. Dan Carpenter and Ms. Ruth Vorpahl directed the production while seniors Debbie Warner and Kay Bidwell were student directors. The cast was Pauline: sophomores Cathi Case and Cindy Laabs. Lucille Early: seniors Kathy McAuliffe and Lynda Stein. Sue Smith: seniors Anne Pollex and Becky Vogt. Billy Early: senior Jim Harwell and freshman Jon Nielson. Jimmy Smith: seniors Terry Zellmer and John King. Nanette: senior Mary Karst and junior Diane Hoeschl. Chorus gave students an opportunity to display their singing talents through concerts or the district solo and ensemble contest.

Dan Carpenter directed the choir while Cindy Laabs accompanied them on the piano.

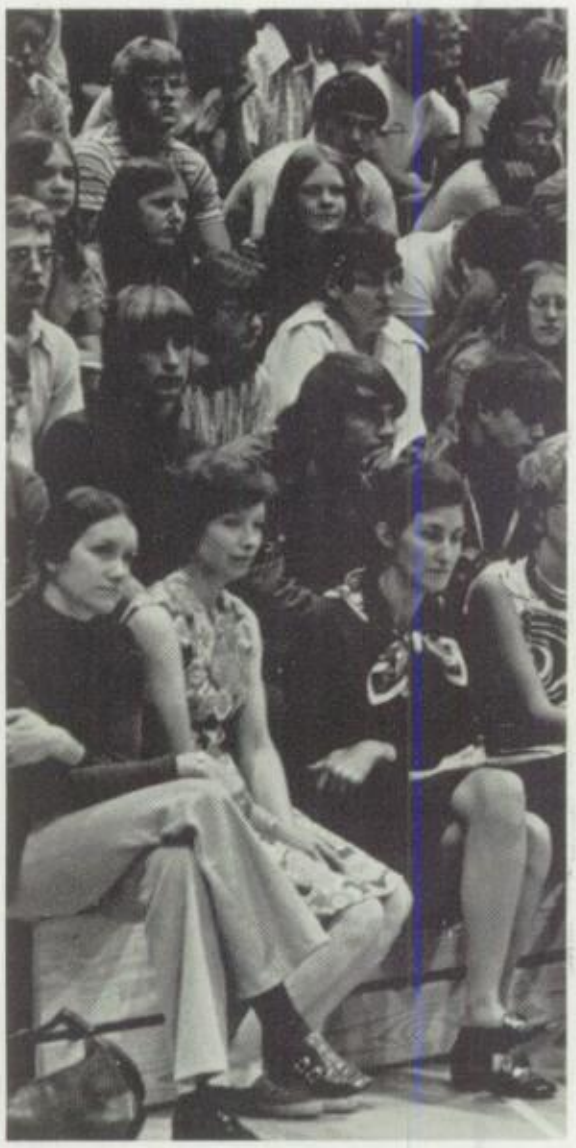
Assemblies Bored Crowds

"Pep assemblies, what a bore" was the general response of the student body when a pep rally was to be held. Cheerleaders and "jocks" complained about the lack of school spirit while most students complained that pep rallies were artificial. Students met the new principal Dr. Lunenburg the first day of school during an all-school assembly. Dr. Lunenburg laid down his plans and hopes for the new year.



Students, teachers, and all North personnel attended the orientation assembly the first day of school.

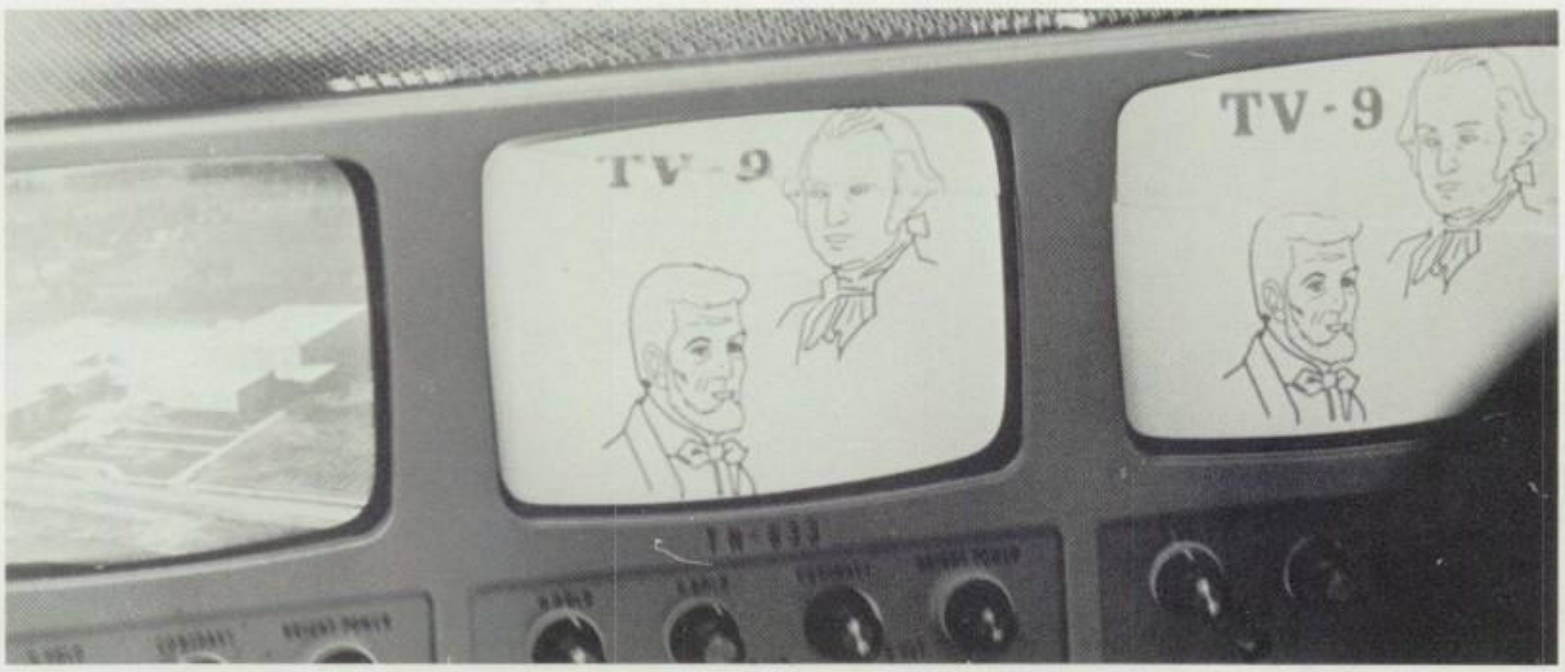
A group of college singers from Madison Technical School in Madison performed various popular songs for the student body at a seventh hour assembly.

Carrying a banner to help promote school spirit were seniors Tom Oberg and Doug Mangold.

Reading the daily announcements were seniors Phil Carson and Paul Martin. Each day two different students read the announcements.

T.V. Studio Prospered

Students and teachers received announcements every morning 2nd hour both visually and on paper. The teacher picked up the written announcements in his or her mailbox and then read them to students after the visual nouncements. Mr. Krubsack, besides having the responsibility for the T.V. studio, taught students how to use the equipment. Tim Bloechl was seen almost every day trying to promote the sale of some sort of product sold in the school store or supporting a school project. Prizes were also given away to the person who sold the most candy in Spartan sports candy sales. The T.V. studio and equipment was also used for class projects and sports events.



The special effects board showed what was being focused on by the cameras. North's T.V. studio has two cameras.

Sandy Ellingsen gave an announcement to promote the sale of singing valentines. For singing valentines, someone paid 25 ¢ to have a song played over the telephone to a special person.

100 North Students Partook In Co-op

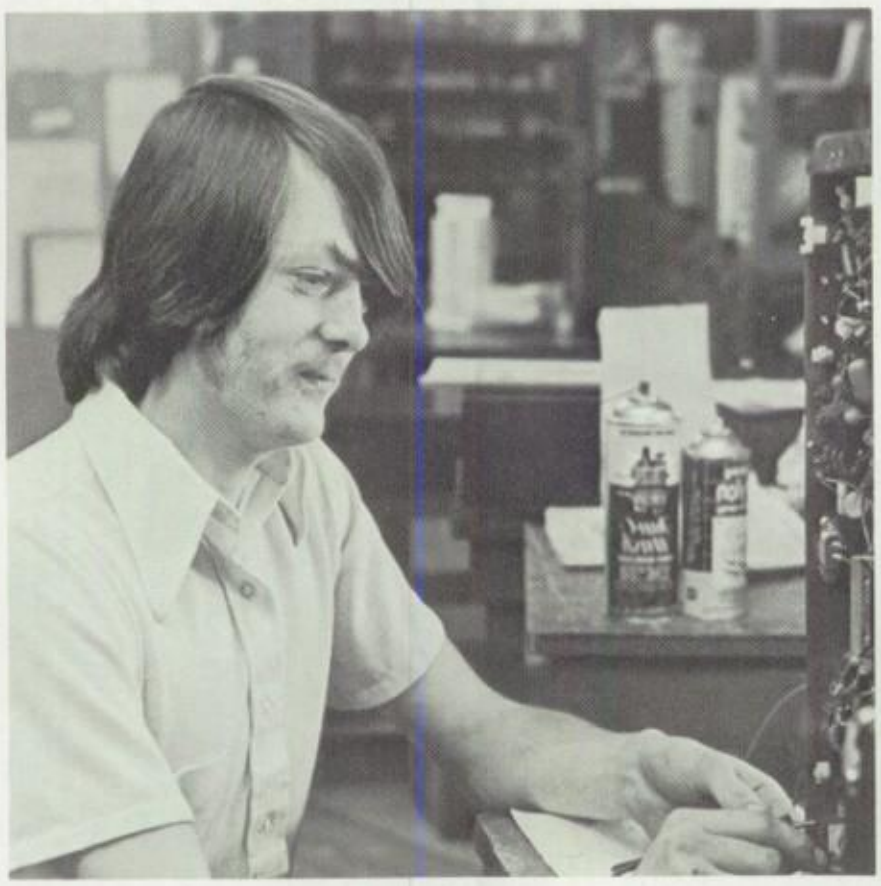
About 100 North students took part in the Co-op (Cooperative Education) Program this year. Parents, students, 65 different businesses, and the school, comprised the program. The objective of Co-op was to provide working experience not found in the classroom.

Once the student submitted an application, it was up to the advisor of the indicated occupation for selection. An interest in the selected field, a need for a job, and a class in the area of interest during the senior year were the major requirements of the applicant. The students were placed in a position of training and were given a grade for the required 150 hours per semester.

With federal funds, Co-op has been able to place students on-the-job for 11 years. The incorporation of a health program was in next year's plans.

Senior Laura Boese used her salesmenship abilities in waiting on a customer at Kinney Shoe Store.

Carefully scrutinizing a plant at Fugleberg and Flister's greenhouse was senior Lori Below. Co-op covered many different occupational fields.



Above: Senior Burt Bradly diligently tested a circuit board. Burt worked for Ra-Tel Service, Inc. while on the Co-op Program.

Right: Preparing rice for a noon meal at Josef's Supper Club was senior Debbie Frank. By taking food service classes Debbie was able to get a job through the Co-op Program.

Work Experience Landed Jobs

Work Experience assisted North students in landing jobs. To become eligible for this aid a counselor's reference was required. Unlike the Co-op Program, a class relating to the job was not necessary. For 170 to 180 hours per semester the student received a grade and half a credit plus experience for personal development. Headed by Mr. Ron DuFour, Work Experience handled about 130 students.

Taking orders was one of the various jobs sophomore Roxanne Voelker experienced as a waitress at A&W. Work Experience tried to place students in near-by businesses.

Working at MacDaniel Motors Ltd. was junior Tom Garthwaite giving the finishing touch to one of their automobiles. Tom was one of the many students involved in the Work Experience Program.

Employed as a secretary by the Health Planning Board was junior Jan Harycki. Jobs provided by Work Experience covered many different fields of interest.

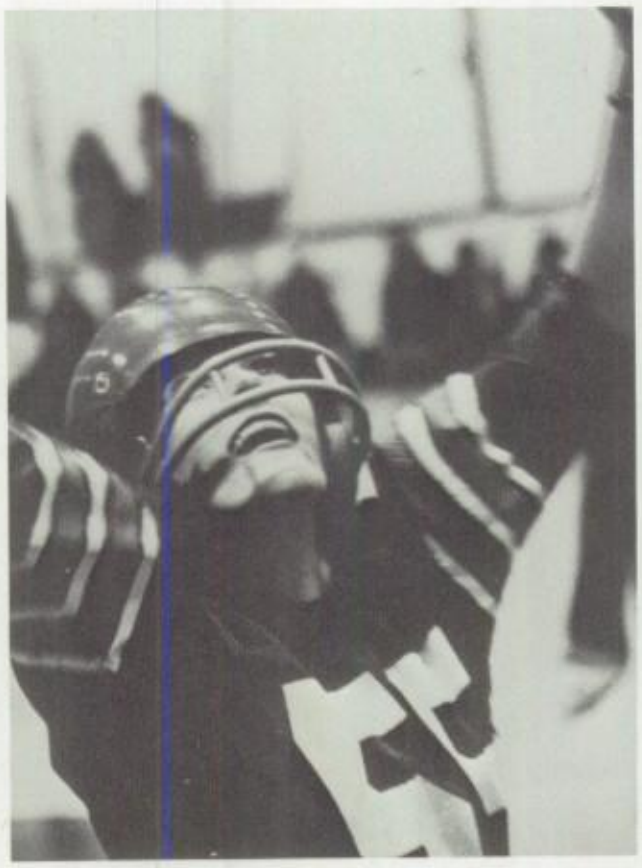
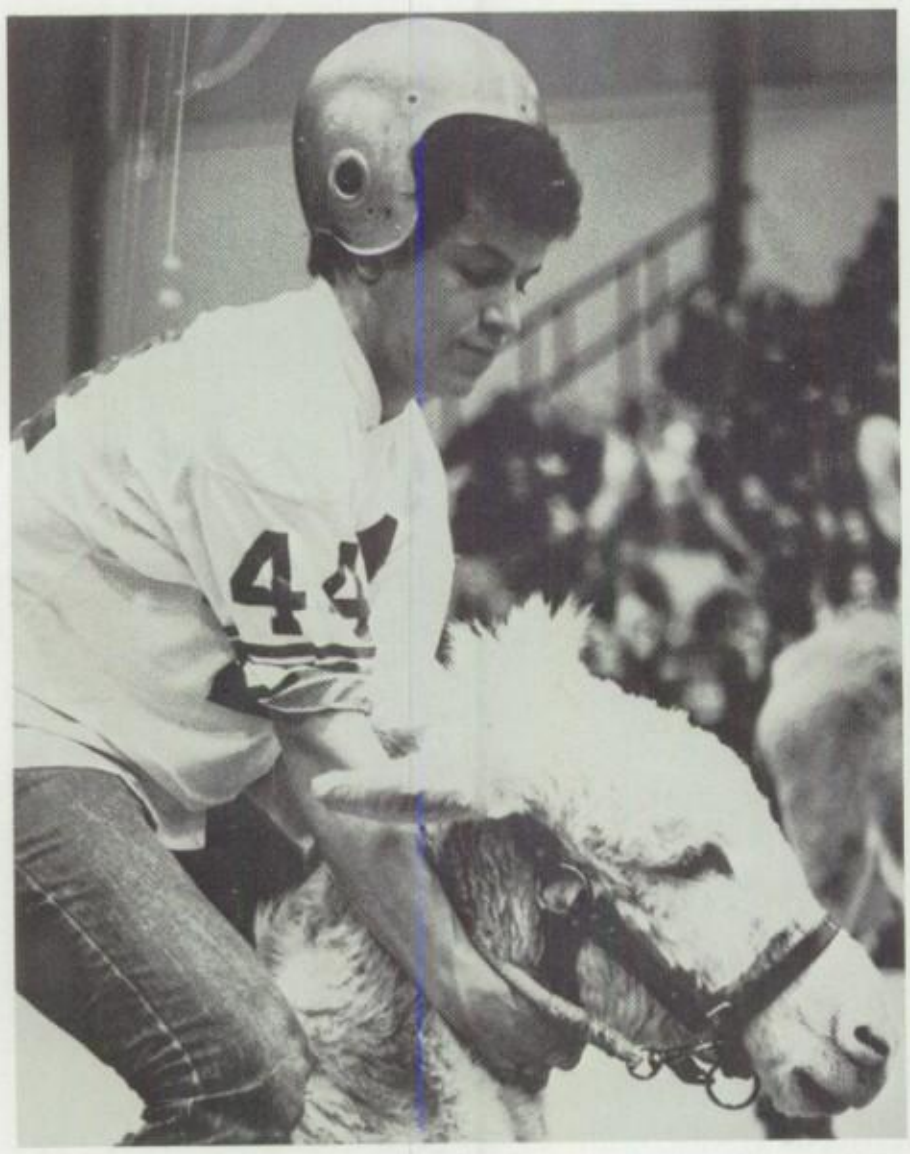
Kiren Ghei portrayed Eleanor Stoddard, and David Larson portrayed Dick Savage in Drama Unlimited's first production of the year, "USA."

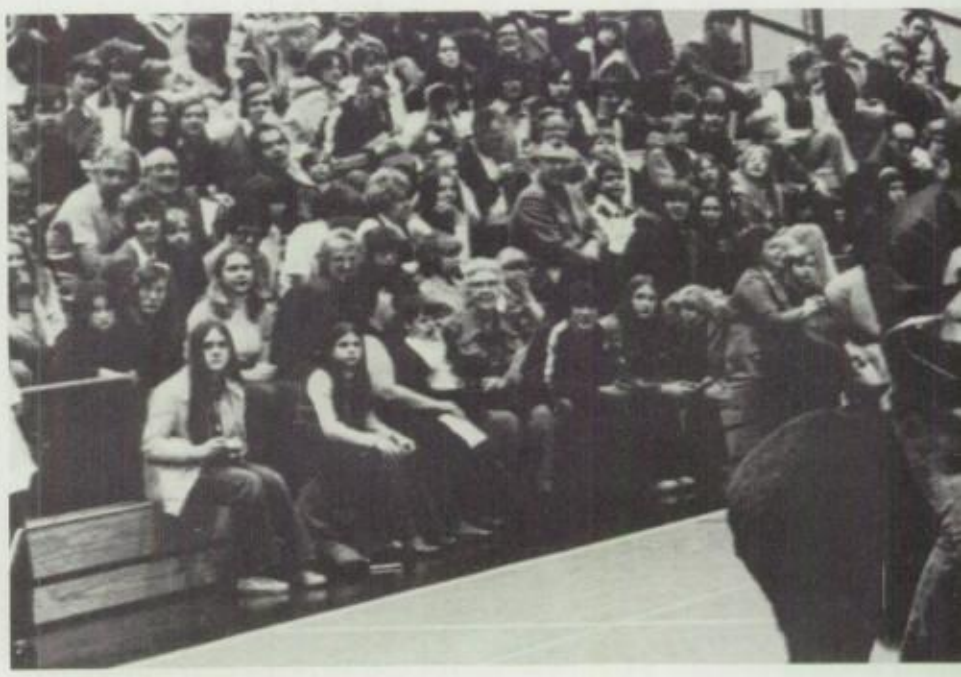


North faculty member Debbie Bohon went wild as she scored a basket for the faculty in the Donkey-ball game.



Despite all his efforts, North FFA team member Jon Gafner could not budge a donkey lodged in the lane. Gafner finally moved the donkey and scored the winning basket against the faculty.

Before he could pass the ball, North junior Tom Tuchscherer went head over heels, thanks to a spirited Crosby donkey.



Seemingly going nowhere, North faculty members Ron Harrell (23) and Marcel Mildebrandt (54) exchanged pleasantries astride their donkies.

FFA Topped Faculty; Intramurals Went P.M.

North's FFA basketball team reaped all the honors at the Donkeyball game sponsored by the FFA Feb. 11 at North. A Jon Gafner one-foot set shot from the back of a donkey helped the FFA tip the faculty in overtime of the championship game.

The faculty, sparked by Debbie Bohon and Jim Buehner, had defeated the North Student Association and the Oshkosh West FFA to get into the finals.

Jim Shug's FFA team defeated WOSH and the Oshkosh West faculty to earn the right to meet North's faculty. Seniors Lori Below and Barb Jaworski of the FFA spent most of their time camped in the opposing team's lane on a donkey that wouldn't move. Lori finally scored on a short shot from under the basket.

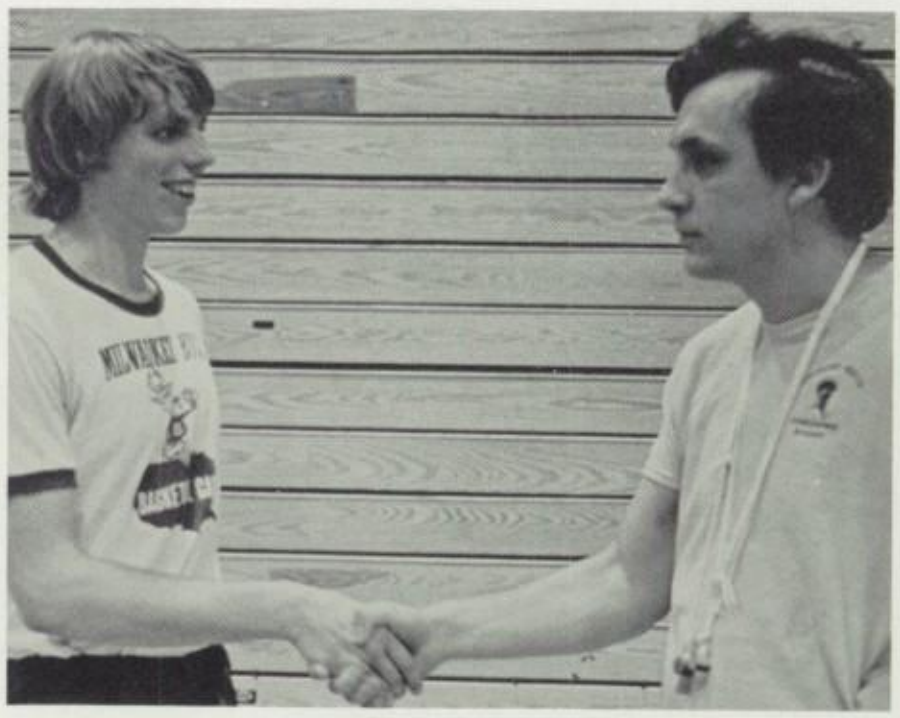
The game was played before a near-capacity crowd.

Intramurals Met At Night

Because of the switch to a split lunch hour, the boys and girls intramural programs moved to a 5:30 to 7 slot on week nights. Although students griped about the change, the number of participants in intramurals was greater than last year's.

Senior Brian Burgert knocked over the most pins at Shoreview Lanes during the Tuesday night bowling league and for his efforts received a medal from intramural director John Gremmer. Burgert rolled a 268 game. Mr. Lowell Johnson assisted Gremmer in intramurals.

Girls intramurals, which featured swimming, basketall, raquetball, tennis, and volleyball drew approximately the same numbers this year as last. Mrs. Mary Eigner and Miss Nancy Blachly supervised the girls on Monday and Wednesday nights from 5:30 — 7 p.m.



Top bowler Brian Burgert received a bowling medal from intramural director John Gremmer. Burgert rolled a high game of 268.

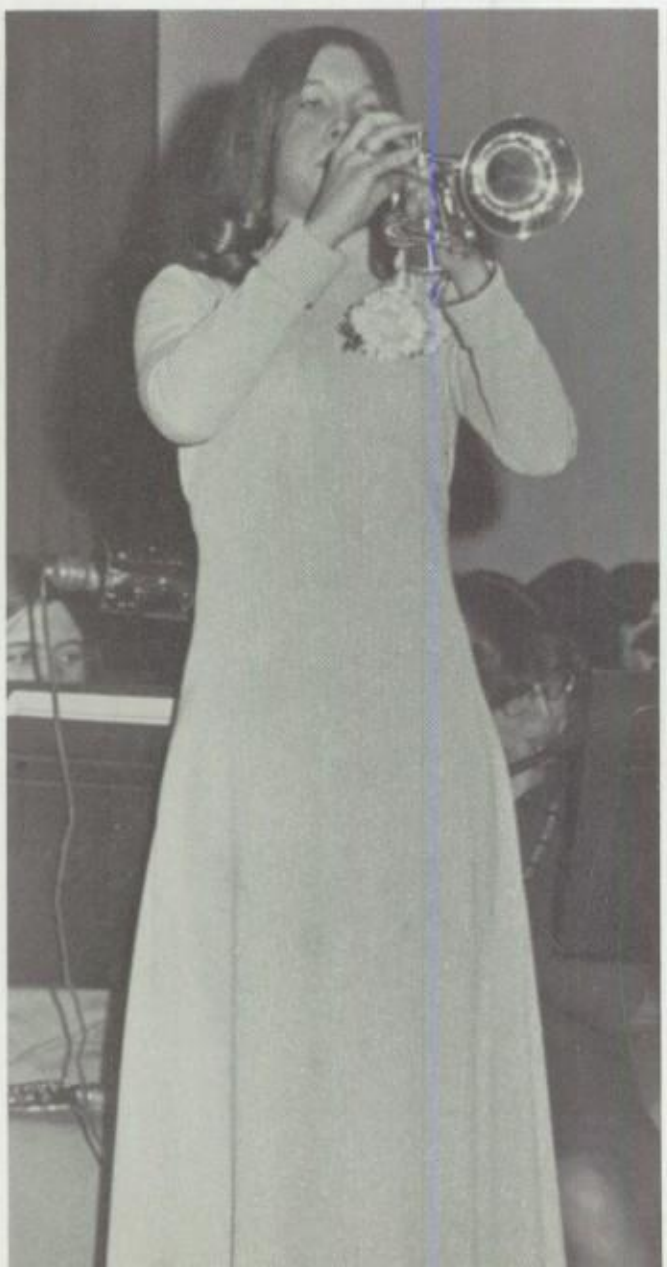
'Miracle Worker' Drew 800; Concerts Spiced Year

Musical and dramatic programs highlighted North's fine arts schedule. North's Concert and Jazz bands combined for Variations III, a program performed at the Civic Auditorium Feb. 8. The annual event, consisting of solos and small groups, featured Glenn Miller —tradition music, an arrangement of Brubeck's "Take Five" and several other numbers. A special attraction was the Faculty Firehouse Five (Dan Carpenter, Robert Messner, Fred Leist, LeRoy Wolter, and Roger Lalk) which played a "Dixieland Clambake."

Under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Nielsen, the drama department presented two plays, "U.S.A." and "The Miracle Worker." " Miracle Worker" followed the life of Anne Sullivan who helped Helen Keller learn of her handicap and partially overcome it. Mrs. Nielsen cast sophomore deaf student Vickie Hering in the role of Helen and junior Terri Mettner as Anne. Over 800 people saw the play.

North's first production of the year, "U.S.A.", a Reader's Theatre, was the story of a man striving for success in the business world. The seven cast members were seniors Jim Helm, Pete Thiel, Dave Larson, Pat Basiliere, Kiren Ghei, junior Cheryl Pagel, and freshman Dyan Evans.

Seniors Julie Flanagan and Jody Reif played a flute duet during Variation III held at the Civic Auditorium.



In "U.S.A", senior Jim Helm (John Moorehouse) talked to Dyan Evans (Miss Williams), his secretary after Helm had become a successful public relations executive.

Backed by the Concert Band, junior Sandy Bloom trumpeted out a coronet solo at the Variations III concert. Sandy later teamed with sophomore John Sherer in a duet.

The five blind girls from Perkins Institute gave Annie (Terry Mettner) a going away present of dark glasses. Mary Borden gave the glasses to Annie while Sue Paulsen, Sandy Warner, Mary Walsh, and Caren Augustine listened in this scene from "The Miracle Worker."

xamining the infant Helen, Doctor Tom Lewis checked her heartbeat hile Jerry Mettner, Helen's father, and Melody Hughes, Helen's mother, oked on with concern.

The "miracle" happens. Helen (Vickie Hering) realized that W-A-T-E-R spelled into her hand meant "water" and she struggled to utter her first word.

School, Governmental Politics Played Roles At North

Senior Ray Zimmer introduced a student bill of rights to Student Association Oct. 4. After several weeks of discussion the rights bill passed Student Association Dec. 12. The bill gave students freedom of political activity, freedom of speech and press, due process, freedom from discrimination, and the right to a quality education. On Dec. 16, North Forum met to discuss the bill of rights along with their regular business, but because of inaccuracy and serious disagreement the bill of rights was placed back into a committee for revision.

Student Association sponsored three political forums before the Nov. 4 election. The first forum featured Gary Goyke the democratic nominee for State Senate. Goyke talked about his views and then answered questions from the audience. Goyke defeated Jon Guiles and Eugene Lind for State Senate. The second forum presented Richard Flintrop, district representative from Madison. Flintrop defeated Republican Peter Kohloff in the November elections.

The third forum was a panel consisting of Gary Goyke, Jon Guiles, and Eugene Lind, American Party, all running for State Senate. Each man talked about his platform and answered questions from the audience.

Law Club sponsored a forum with Oshkosh Congressman Bill Steiger and Fond du Lac Representative hopeful Kohloff. Steiger was North's Hall of Famer for Media Expo "75" held in March.

North held its own mock election Nov. 4, with Goyke, Flintrop, and Steiger all coming out on top. Issues discussed in the forums were Watergate, Abortion, legalization of marijuana, student rights, inflation and the oil crisis.

In the beginning of the year, Student Association made a recommendation that the split lunch be dropped. Split lunch was a program implemented by the school board which divided the lunch hour into three periods. Students complained that the shortened lunch hour didn't give them enough time to eat or enough freedom. The recommendation was not effective in persuading principal Dr. Lunenburg in changing the noon hour period.

As second semester began, vice-principal Ron Houle implemented a new set of rules which helped govern students in the halls.

Dr. Lunenburg, the first day of school, pardoned freshmen from study halls which gave greater freedom during the school hours.

Many other school, world and local problems enveloped North; some were forgotten, others remembered.

Bonfire Brightened Spartan III

The bonfire, like the Spartan football team, had a hard time getting started during Spartan III. While the bonfire, with the help of some gasoline and lacquer, finally got started some 75 minutes after its initial lighting, the football team never did get off the ground as they lost to Menasha 24-6 Friday night. But aside from the game, the week was a flaming success.

Mums grown in the North greenhouse were sold during the week for $1.50 until a Friday green light special lowered the price to 50 cents. Tradition was dropped this year as anyone could buy a mum, instead of the boys buying a mum for the girls.

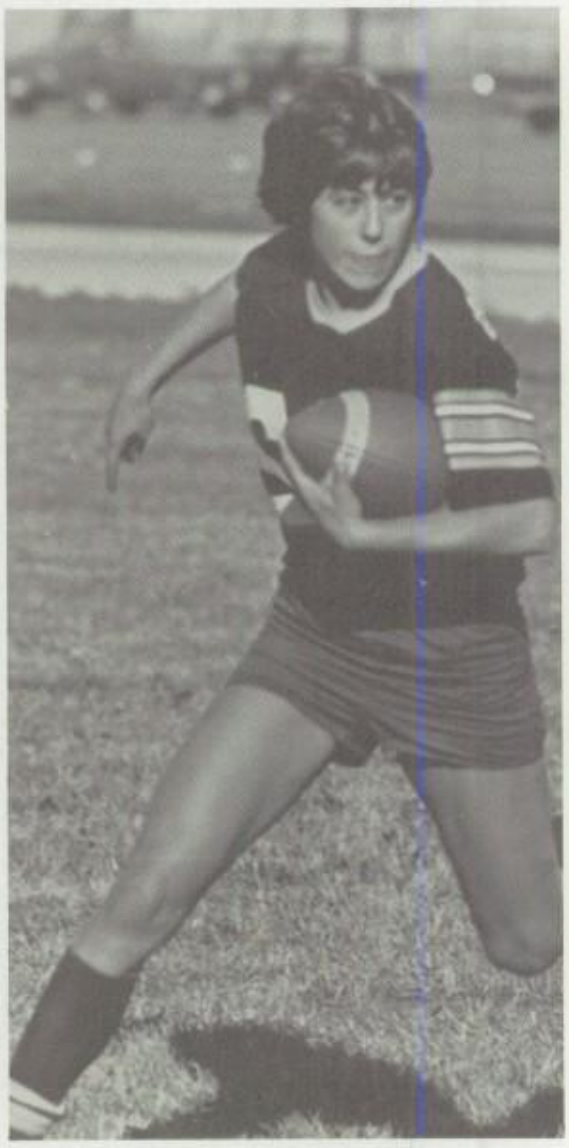
Coach Tom Mettlach once again reigned as Most Spirited Teacher and art teacher Jim Ely came in second.

Thursday's hamburger fry sold out within a half hour, largely due to the tiny 25 cent charge per hamburger. While the hamburgers were sizzling in the grill, Radio Flyer, a Bluegrass band, entertained the crowd inside the gymnasium.

Senior Tom Oberg won the poker chip contest by outdueling senior Jack Lloyd. Oberg took home a tape deck for his winning effort.

On Friday, Centaur provided the music for the post game dance.

In preparation for Friday night's caravan to Titan Stadium, junior Karla Jorgensen painted a car. The caravan consisted of at least 20 cars.



Rolling around left end, senior Martha Marx headed for the goal line. The sophomore and freshmen girls outargued the junior and senior girls in the powder puff football game 13-7.

The bonfire was the highlight of the Spartan III week festivities. Juniors Linda Frank and Colleen Gee conversed while enjoying the warmth of the fire.

Spartan III King Senior John King and Senior Queen, Mary Karst reigned over the Spartan Court and the Spartan dance. King played quarterback on the football team, while Mary was a varsity cheerleader.

Seniors Kelly McDaniels, Skip Pipcorn, and Tom Zak turned the car over in order to hold a car smash. The car was turned over by vandals prior to the car smash.

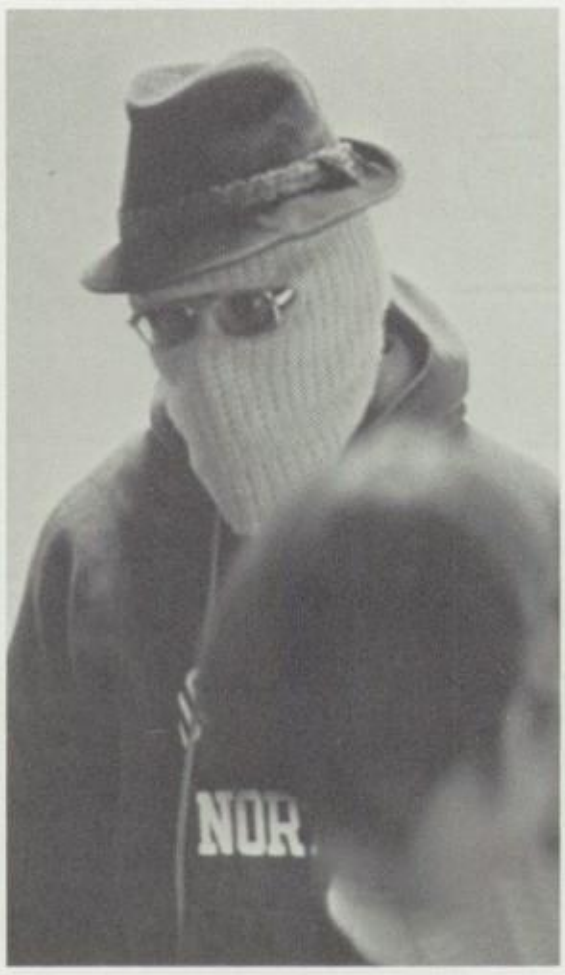
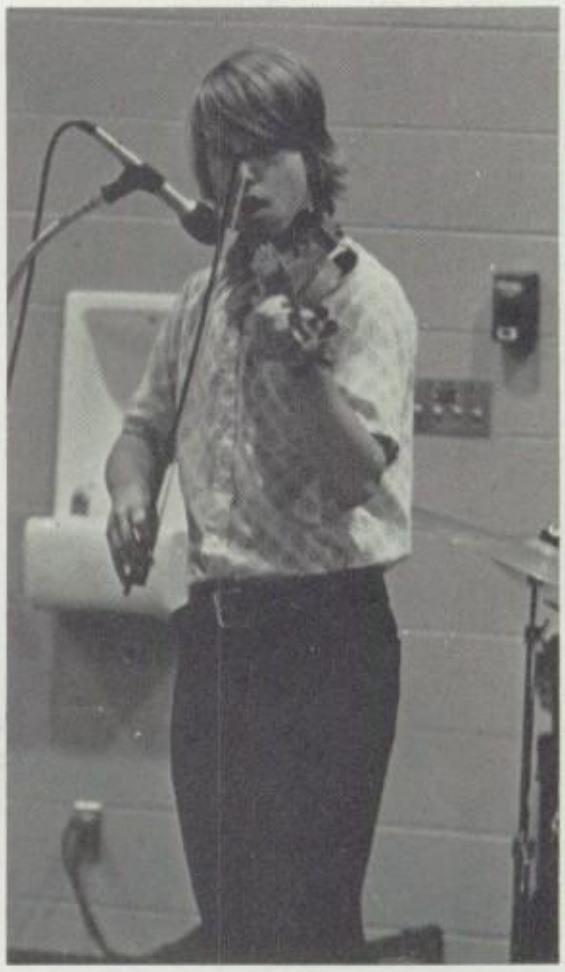
Teacher Gail Beyer played on the faculty side of the baseball game on tricycles. Students downed the Faculty 4-2.



Participating in the student/faculty volleyball game was Junior Dean Glaze (Doctor Zero). The students downed the faculty two out of three games.



Senior Bryan Christensen; member of the bluegrass band Radio Flyer, performed on Thursday of Spartan III week after school.

Blackwell Paced Team

North's varsity volleyball team lost their last match to Fond du lac two games to one, ending the season with a record of two wins and eleven losses. The junior varsity ended the season just the opposite by defeating Fond du lac, two games to one, bringing their season record to six wins and two losses. North lost both of their regional tournament matches, losing to Oshkosh West, two games to none, and to Neenah, two games to one. Captain of the varsity team was Janie Thompson, and Shelly Blackwell was the Most Valuable Player. Both teams were coached by Miss Nancy Blachly.

Most Valuable Player, Shelly Blackwell, (right) returned the ball with a powerful spike in a game against Kimberly.

Swimmers Finished 2-3

North's girls' swim team coached by Mrs. Mary Eigner ended the season with a 2-3 record in dual meets, and one second place in their only triangular. Top swimmers for the year were: Best All Around Swimmer, Mary Borden, in the 200 yard individual medley and the 100 yard butterfly; Most Valuable Member, Terri Thorfinnson in the 200 and 500 yard freestyle; Sandy Bloom, who took a first in diving at all meets but one; and Laura Meier in the 100 yard backstroke and 100 yard freestyle. Patti Stiff was awarded the Most Spirited Member and Lynn Pistohl awarded Most Improved Swimmer.

Gridders Placed 6th In FVA

North's gridders closed out the season on a dismal note losing to Appleton West 47-0, Oct. 26. It was the seventh win without a loss for the Terrors, who won the FVA Title.

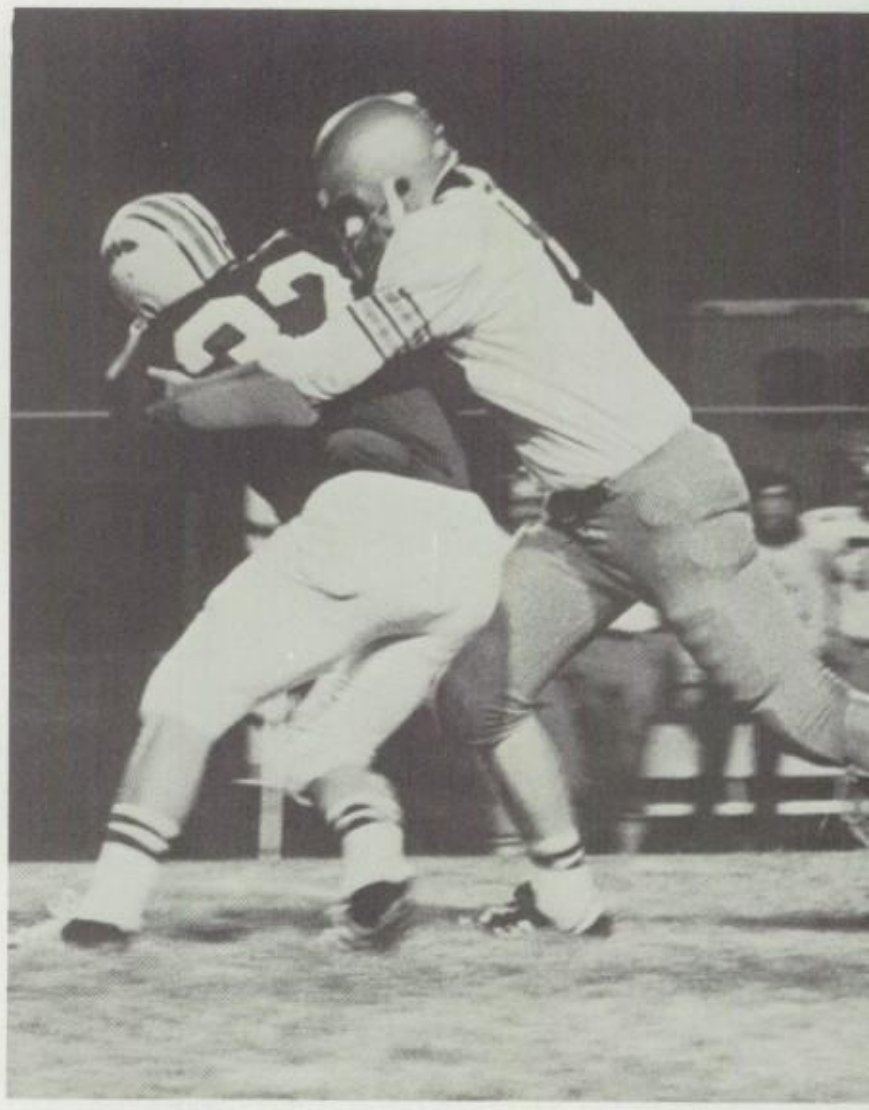
The loss left the Spartans in sixth place with a 2-5 record and 2-6 overall.

North head coach Tom Mettlach figured key injuries played a big part in the role of stopping the Spartans from winning more games this year.

"It was a disappointing season," evaluated Mettlach. "Sympathetic is the word you had to feel for this team."

"Because of all the injuries players were forced to play different positions from their natural ones. We'd be in games all the way till the fourth quarter and then get beat. It was just a tough season."

On a brighter note Mettlach added, "I thought (Seniors) Chuck Beck and Bryan Bruley played as consistent as anyone. (Senior) John King, played well while he was in there. (Sophomore) Matt Veldt improved as the season went on."



Senior Chuck Beck crashed through the opponent's line and sacked West's Jay Schmick.

Senior George Curtis went into a back arch, used to stretch out the muscles, during practice after school.

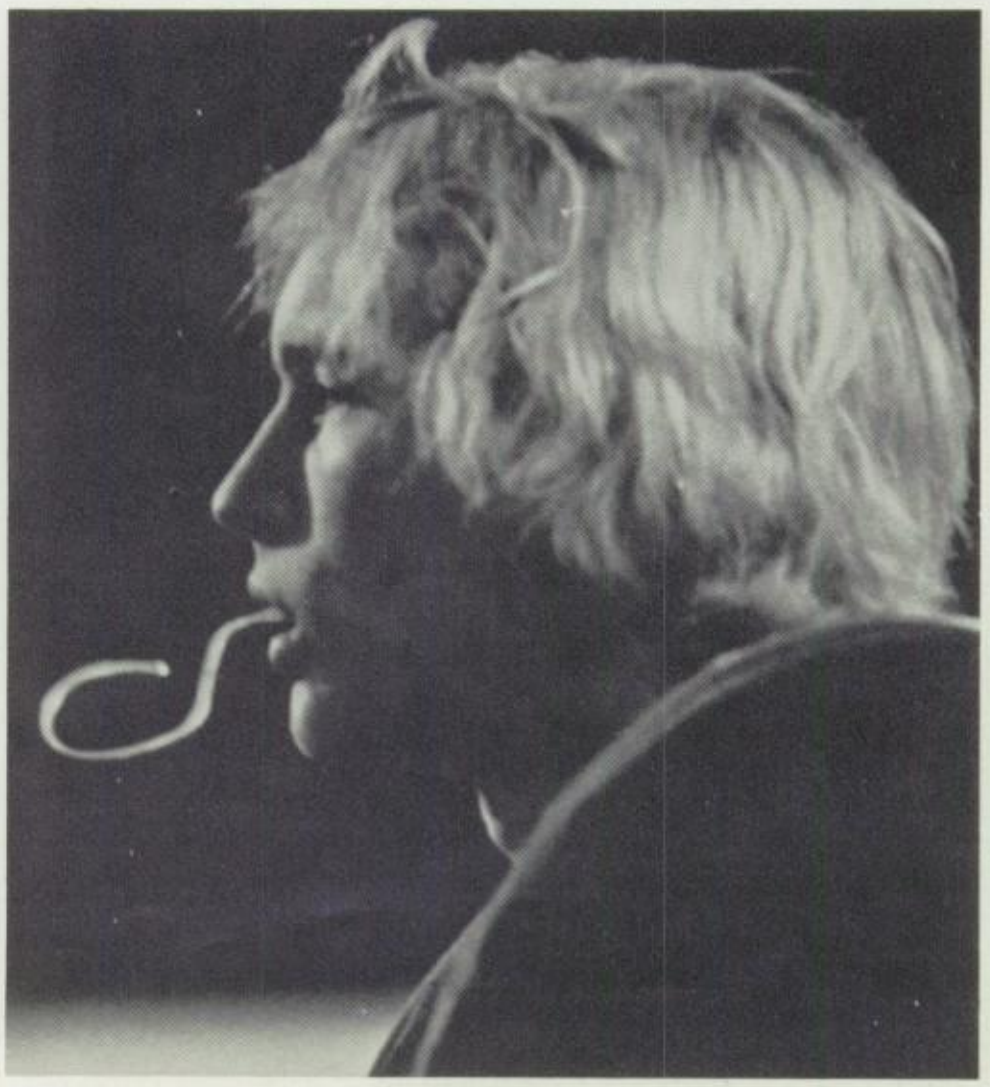
While watching the game from the sidelines, senior Mark Meier munched on his mouthguard.



Bruley Led Spartans

Bryan Bruley made both FVA all conference teams being named linebacker on the defensive team and tackle on the offensive team. Bruley was also the recipient of the Spartan award and received honorable mention All State. Beck received honorable mention all conference.

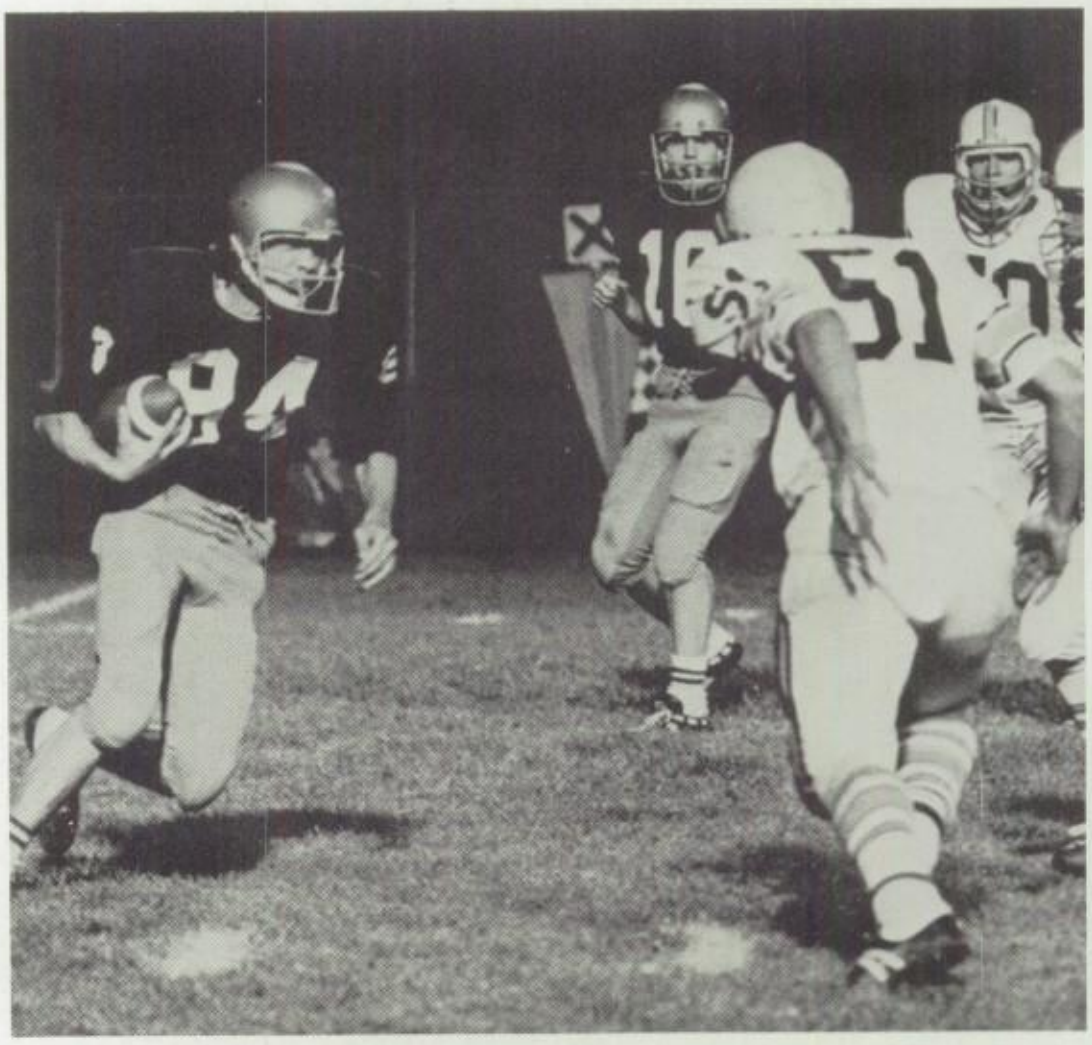
In the final FVA statistics, the Spartans finished seventh in total offense averaging 143.8 yards per game and scoring a total of 54 points.

Defensively, North was fifth in the conference allowing an average of 189.7 yards per game and giving up a total of 123 points.

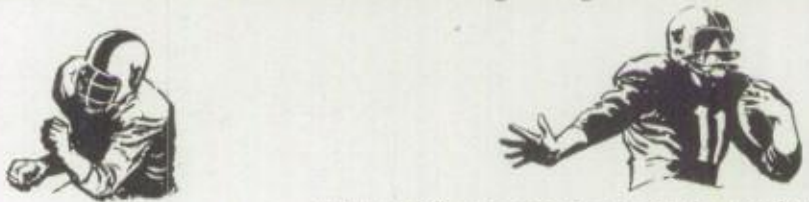
Junior Jim Ostertag was sixth in the conference in rushing with 308 yards in 102 attempts. Ostertag was also the leading scorer for North with 18 points.

Senior Brian Baker picked up 144 yards in 41 carries while senior Dave Hirte carried 22 times for 107 yards and a 4.9 average.

Sophomore Dick Thill completed 12 of 45 passes for 141 yards and one touchdown. King, who sat out the greater part of the season with an ankle injury, was 6 out of 21 passes for 77 yards.

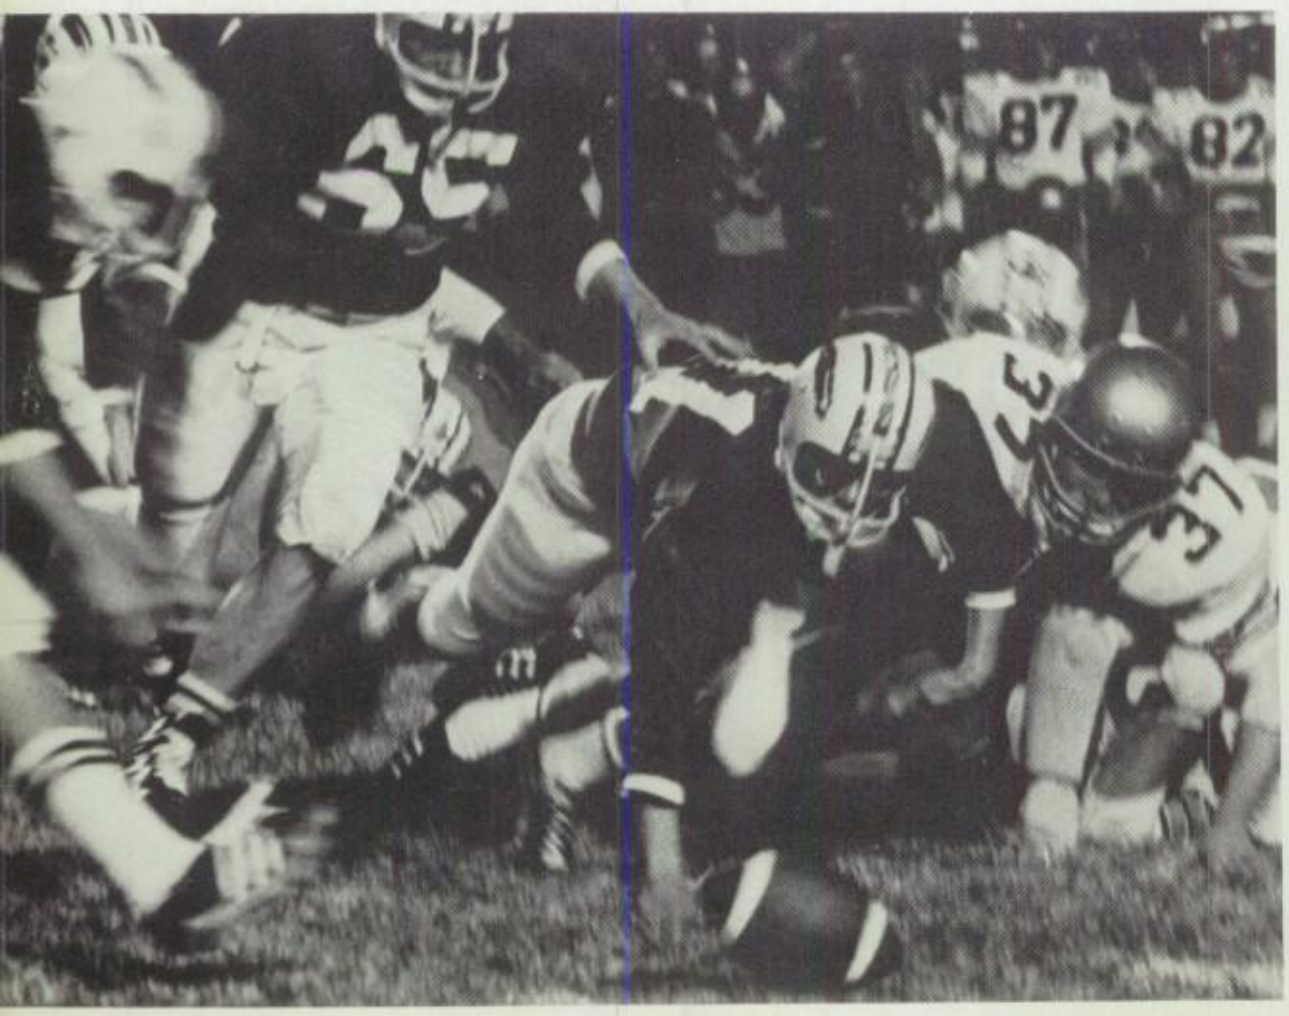


Senior Dean Brewer went end around in the game against the Kaukauna Ghosts.



FVA All Conference Bryan Bruley anxiously awaited his return to the game. Bruley received honorable mention All State.

Senior Dave Hirte coughed up the ball for a fumble during the Oshkosh North-West game. The Indians recovered the ball and went on to win the game.



Junior Varsity Won 5, Lost 3; Best Ever

North's J. V. football team closed out their 1974 season with a 12-6 win over Appleton West. The win gave the Spartans a 5-3 record, best ever by a J. V. team at North.

In the final statistics Tim Bernier led the team in rushing with 432 yards in 129 carries. John Sherer was second with 198 yards in 28 tries for a 7.1 average per carry.

Steve Erickson led in passing with 32 completions in 64 attempts for 460 yards while sophomore Vince Deringer led in receiving with eight catches for 51 yards.

Captains of the Spartans were Jim Nimke, Bob Hable, and Steve Erickson.

Phil Bober, coach of the Spartans, said, "I felt our record could have been 7-1, however some key injuries had some effect on our performance."

Bober added, "When these players are on varsity, I think they'll have an excellent defense because of their desire and willingness to work. I predict this team will be# 1 by the time they are seniors."

Olympians Finished 4-0-1

Olympians, coached by Mr. Russ Rutz, had an undefeated season with a record of 4-0-1. Coach Rutz said of his team, "They have good size, decent speed and a good attitude."

In passing Scott Neitzel completed 17 out of 28 passes with one interception for a total of 117 yards and two touchdowns. The Olympians only allowed 11 completions out of 40 passes and intercepted 4 times.

Typical freshmen equipment included helmet, shoulder pads, and 'playbook.'

Coach Rutz gave a pep talk to the Olympians during a game against Oshkosh West.

Trojans Finished 0-3-2

The Trojans ended the 1974 season with a record of 0-3-2.

When asked about the 1974 football season, Mr. Bill Akan, coach of the Trojans, said, "A team likes to win but at the freshmen level the emphasis is more on interest in football and improvement in preparation for future varsity teams. There was a tremendous improvement between our first and last game, both in attitude and skill. So in a sense you could say our season was successful, and I look forward to a good varsity team in a few years."

Anchoring the defense was Jack Grundy, who led the team in tackles.

Tim Bloechl, Jeff Carter, and Steve Mingus practiced for a meet on the track carved by CC runners in the woods early in the season.

Golz Led Harriers To Third Place Finish

Coached by Ron Swanson the varsity cross country team recorded two firsts and two seconds in triangular meets, a first in their only dual meet, and a first in a five-team meet. The varsity placed third out of eight team in the conference meet while the J.V. team placed fourth out of five teams.

Captain and Most Valuable Player was senior Steve Golz. Sophomore Terry Gorr got the title of Most Improved Runner.

Steve Golz graduated this year, leaving three of the top four runners to continue on next fall.

Golfers Initiated Fall Season Under Spaulding

During the 1974 year there were two golf seasons; one in the spring, school year 73-74, and one in the fall, school year 74-75. The golf season was switched from spring to fall this year proving advantageous to the team. The courses were in better condition, and there were fewer people playing on them.

Under the direction of Coach Don Spaulding the Oshkosh North golf team tallied two wins and six losses in dual meets and finished second place twice in triangular meets during the 1974 season. North finished 6th out of 7 teams at the conference meet; but placed higher in sectionals with a third out of ten teams.

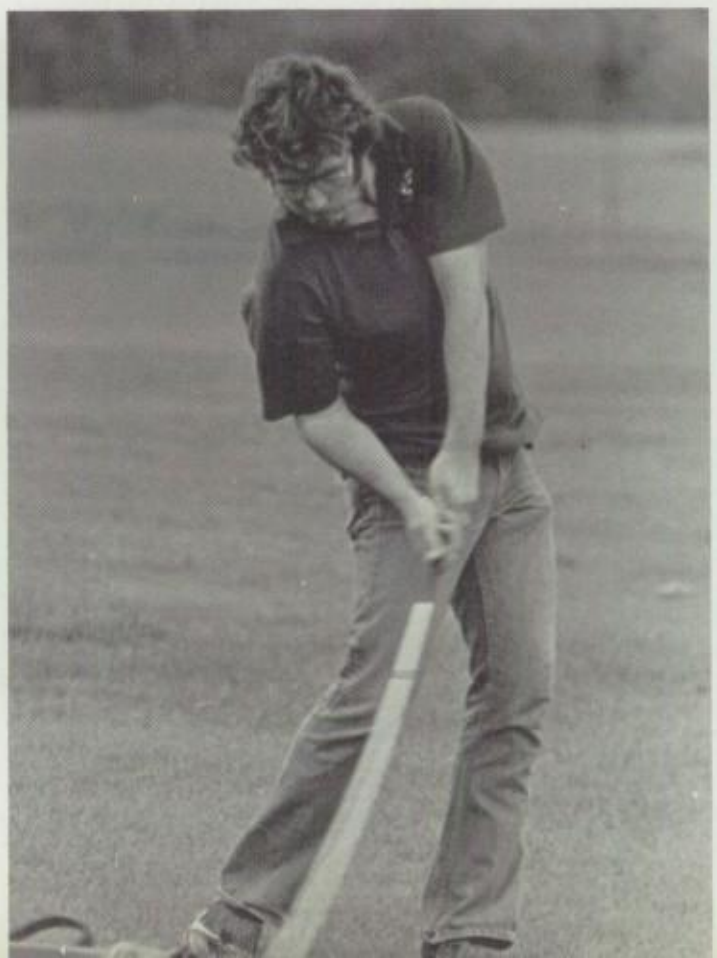
One bright spot was Senior Harry Barkelar who went to the state meet held at Lawsonia golf course. Barkelar finished 11th out of 60 and shot a 172 for 36 holes. The three-time letter winning Barkelar was also the Most Valuable Player.

On a windy day senior Tom Oberg hit one just to the left of the cup.

Varsity Golf Team: V. Schroeder, M. Zahn, H. Barkelar, C. Johnson, T. Oberg, B. Below.

J.V. Golf Team: C. Palmer, J. Staehler, T. Harvey, Coach Spaulding, T. Mosling, R. Davis, D. (Hole in One) Holicky.

Senior Harry Barkelar, Most Valuable Player on the team, chipped one onto the green. Barkelar placed 11th at State.



Swimmers Won Title

Coach Sig Eigner had reason to be happy Feb. 15, for North's swim team, after an undefeated 8-0 season, won the conference championship at North. Four pool records were set by North swimmers. Sophomore Tom Hayes surged to two conference championships and broke two pool records in the 200 I.M., 2:11.4, and the 100 free, 51.4. Senior Tom Denes broke through for two more championships in the 500 free and the 50 free in which he also broke the record with a 23.6 time. Tying his own pool record of 1:03.9 in the 100 back stroke and also winning a championship was junior Tom Mosling.

Second place medalists in the conference meet were juniors Scott Negendank in the 200 and 500 free, and Franz Gehrke in the 100 butterfly. The 400 free relay team of seniors Phil Carson and Tom Denes, junior Tom Mosling, and Tom Hayes also took second.

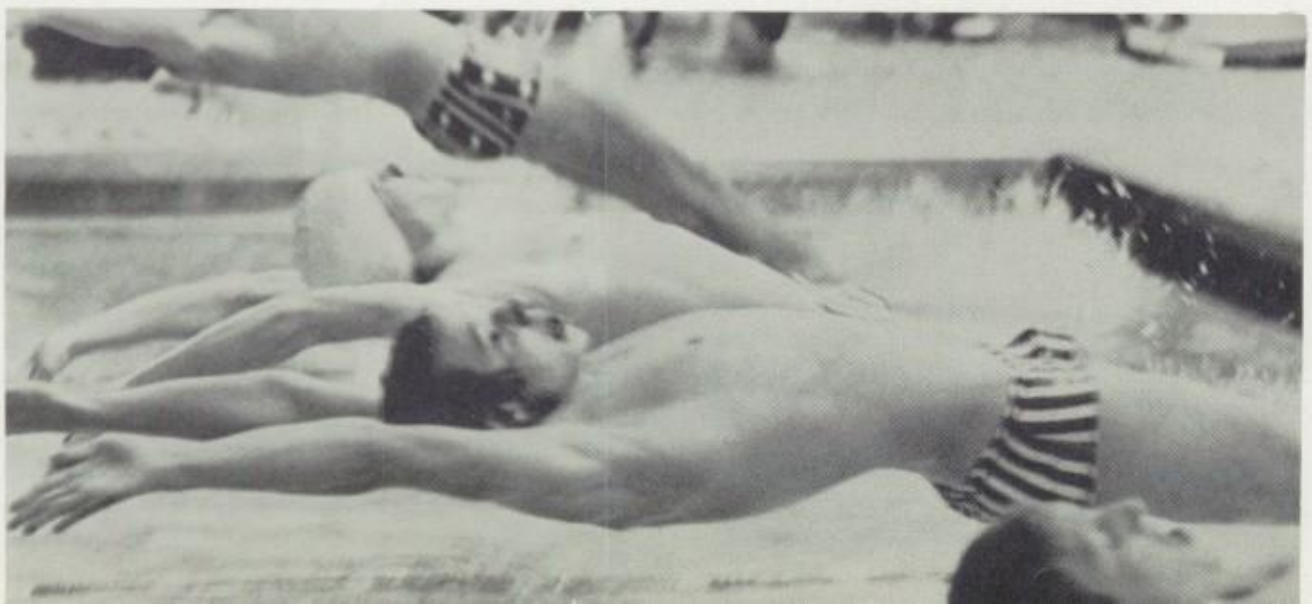
Prior to the 50-yard freestyle, senior Tom Denes fought for proper breath control.



Entering the water enroute to a victory in the 100 yard back stroke was junior Tom Mosling.

Varsity cheerleader Sandy Bloom, a junior, looked on dismally as North lost to Neenah.

Cheerleaders Rapped Crowds

North's 1974-75 cheerleaders had one thing in common — an opinion on the crowds.

"The school spirit was really bad. People wonder why Neenah wins; they have school spirit." Loren Lewellyn

"Cheerleading this year is very disappointing because this school lacks spirit." Marianne Herdina

"It's a real bummer when we cheer our heads off and the crowd turns into a bunch of zombies." Wendy Hocking

"You wonder why we don't win, look at the crowd." Sandy Bloom

"The guys don't want to go out and play basketball when there's not so much as a peep from the fans. They do that every day at practice." Colleen Gee

Some girls had few complaints.

"I really had a lot of fun cheering this year." Jodie Clark

"The only word describing cheerleading this year is fantastic." Linda Frank

Most of the cheerleaders enjoyed the season and stated that they "really enjoy cheerleading." They said they appreciated the support of the people that gave it, but that there was far less support at J.V. games then there was at varsity games.

"I really like cheering ... WHEN YOU HAVE PEOPLE TO CHEER TO! Sandy Ellingsen

"I just want to say thanks to the kids that ARE backing sports this year." Teri Roth

"Cheerleading this year is OK but I've seen better crowds, a lot better!" Julie Hering

"The kids that did come and cheer all the time were great." Jodie Clark

To cheer or not to cheer will be the question next year. Will cheerleaders continue to cheer for fans that don't care? What will the spirit of '76 be like?

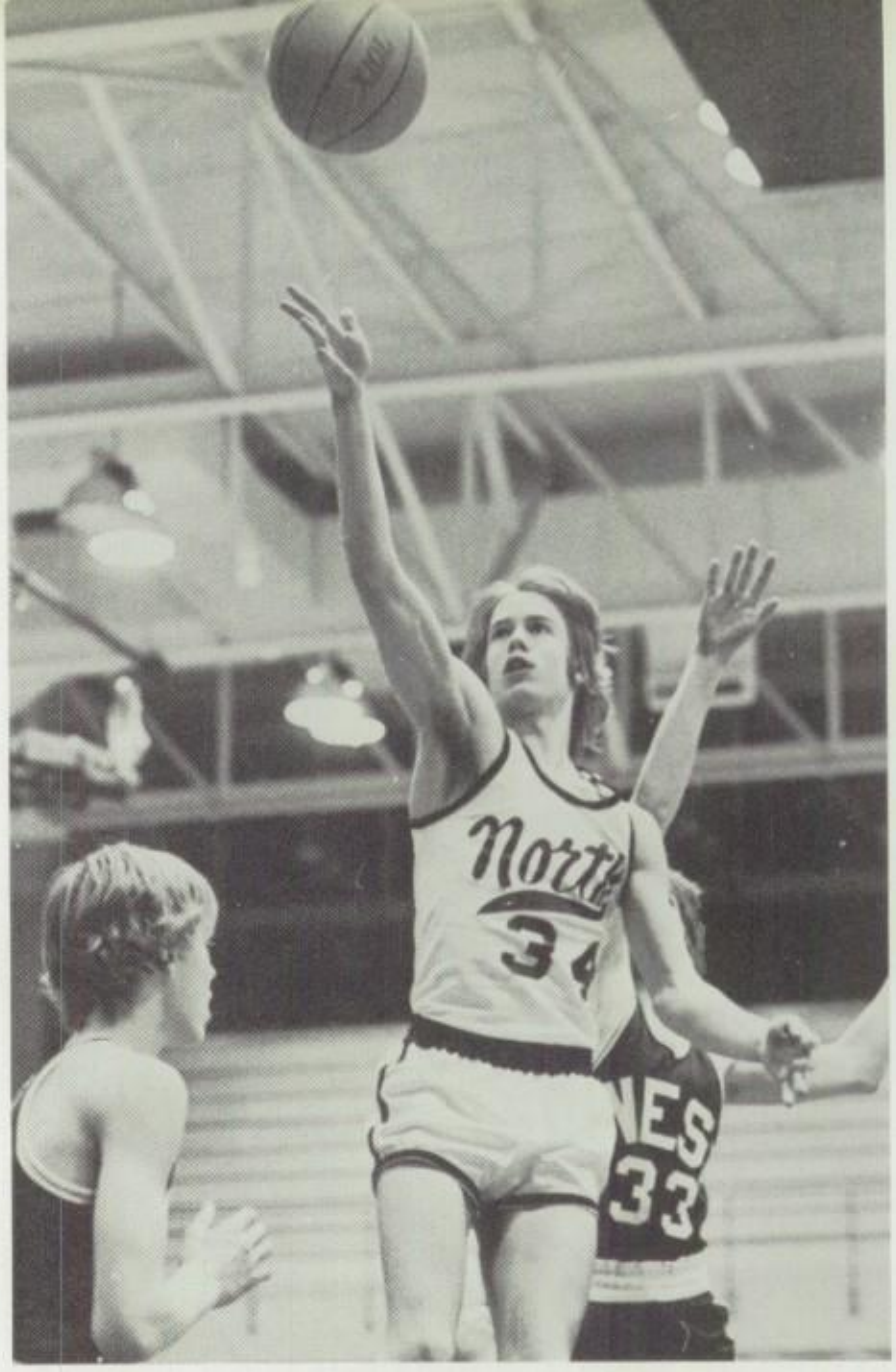
Frosh Met Success; JVs Tipped West

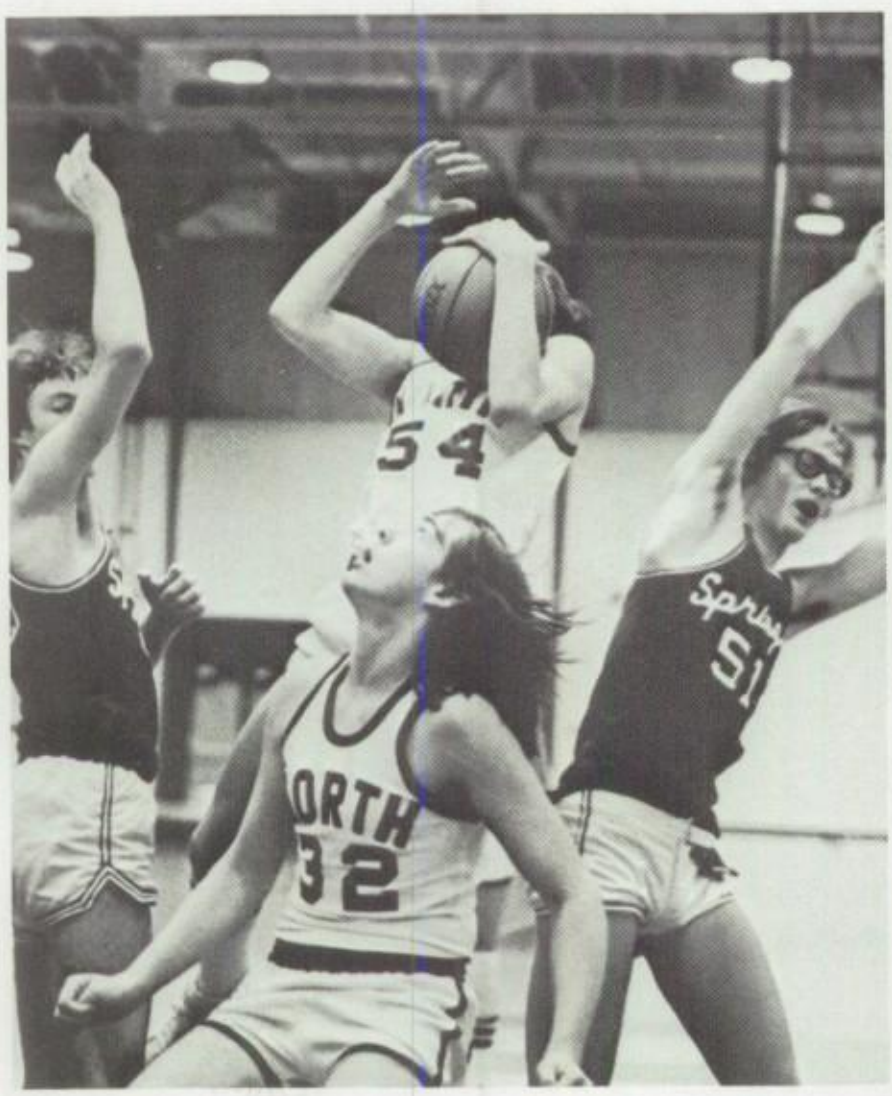
The freshman cagers were the most successful of North's three boys basketball teams. Coach Dan Krhin's players were led by Ted Zellmer, Andy Luebke, Doug Hirte, and Rick Kroon in scoring. In rebounding the 6'1" Hirte led with Don Schmid and Andy Luebke right behind.

JVs Trimmed West

The highlight of Coach Cliff Vogel's junior varsity basketball season came Jan. 3 at home, when the Spartans trimmed cross town rival Oshkosh West 55-53 in double overtime. After a disappointing beginning when North lost several close games, the JVs held on for the action packed win. Leading scorers for the season were sophomores Mark Paulson, Steve Potratz, and Jeff Lloyd. Top rebounders were Steve Potratz and Dick Thill.



John Sherer drove the lane and made an easy layup to score against West. Sherer played guard for the JVs.



Freshman Mark Klemmer (32) looked for the ball as freshman Andy Luebke (54) found it.

In a game against Fond du lac Springs Mark Klemmer (32) desperately tried to get his hands on the ball.

BOYS BASKETBALL, JV TEAM: R. Kriegel, Mgr., Coach Cliff Vogel, L. Beck, Jim Parsons, S. Neuser, M. Paulson, R. Thill, S. Potratz, B. Nickel, T. Strauss, J. Sherer, Bill Flood, Jeff Lloyd, S. Roberts, R. McIlree, Mgr.

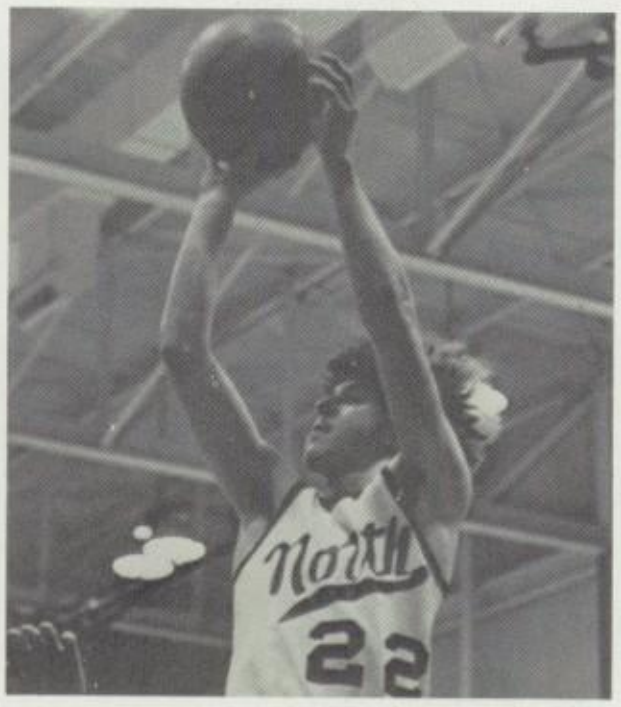
In the game against Winneconne, freshman Doug Hirte got off an awkward shot. The shot was missed, but the game was won 51 to 41.



Sophomore Scott Neuser sank a short jump shot in the game aganst West.

BOYS BASKETBALL, VARSITY TEAM, Row One: John Cameron, R. Webb, J. King, G. Curtis, M. Cross, B. Selkirk, S. Kierszh. Row Two: T. Bloechl, Mgr., B. Denure, S. Erickson, S. Golz, Coach Tom Wagner, J. Martin, Dave Hirte, C. Johnson, M. Zahn, Mgr., M. Neyhard, Mgr.

Poised for action and awaiting a rebound, North seniors John Cameron (22) and John King (30) battled their Appleton East opponents.

Sophomore Steve Erickson (54) slightly altered the shot of Appleton East's 6'7" forward Paul Calloway by gently nudging his arm.

Kimberly Win Tops Season

North's basketball season was filled with several disappointing moments, one of them the North-West game where North was ahead throughout most of the game but lost in overtime 57-51. North's lack of height was a contributing factor in the loss as was a possible three-point play that sent senior Dave Hirte out of the game with his fifth foul besides nullifying a basket. Finally on January 10, the Spartans mustered their forces to record their first win of the season in Kimberly against the Papermakers. North grabbed the lead in the second quarter and ended the half with a half court shot by senior John King at the buzzer making the score 32-29. The Spartans held the lead all through the second half until the final minutes of the game. Then with four seconds left to play, Hirte sank a short jump shot to win the game 59-58. The Spartans' win over the Papermakers broke a nine-game losing streak. North finished the season without recording another win.

Getting inside position, Brian DeNure (34) laid one in against West's Bruce Dittmer.

Sailing down court, senior Dave Hirte, North's top rebounder, led a fast break against Appleton East.

Grapplers Took 3rd

Coach Lowell Johnson's varsity wrestling team recorded a 6-6-1 dual meet record in '74-75 and placed third in the conference meet held at Kaukauna.

Throughout the year, the wrestlers were paced by senior Stan Kellenberger and junior Brad Sessions. Kellenberger finished the conference season with a 20-1-0 mark while Sessions went undefeated with a 22-0 record.

Freshman Bruce Bruley became North's first conference champion in history as he copped the 98-pound class at Kaukauna. Moments later North had its second champ in Sessions at 112 pounds. Bruley went 13-3-1 during the regular season.

Also placing at conference was senior Dave Gruse (15-3-0), sophomore Dave McCarthy (10-8-2), and senior Mark Meier (13-8-0).

Mike Dempsey assisted coach Johnson along with Bill Akan and Jim Buehner.

In a meet against Appleton West, senior Mark Meier injured his elbow. Meier had a 13-8-0 record and took a fourth place at conference.

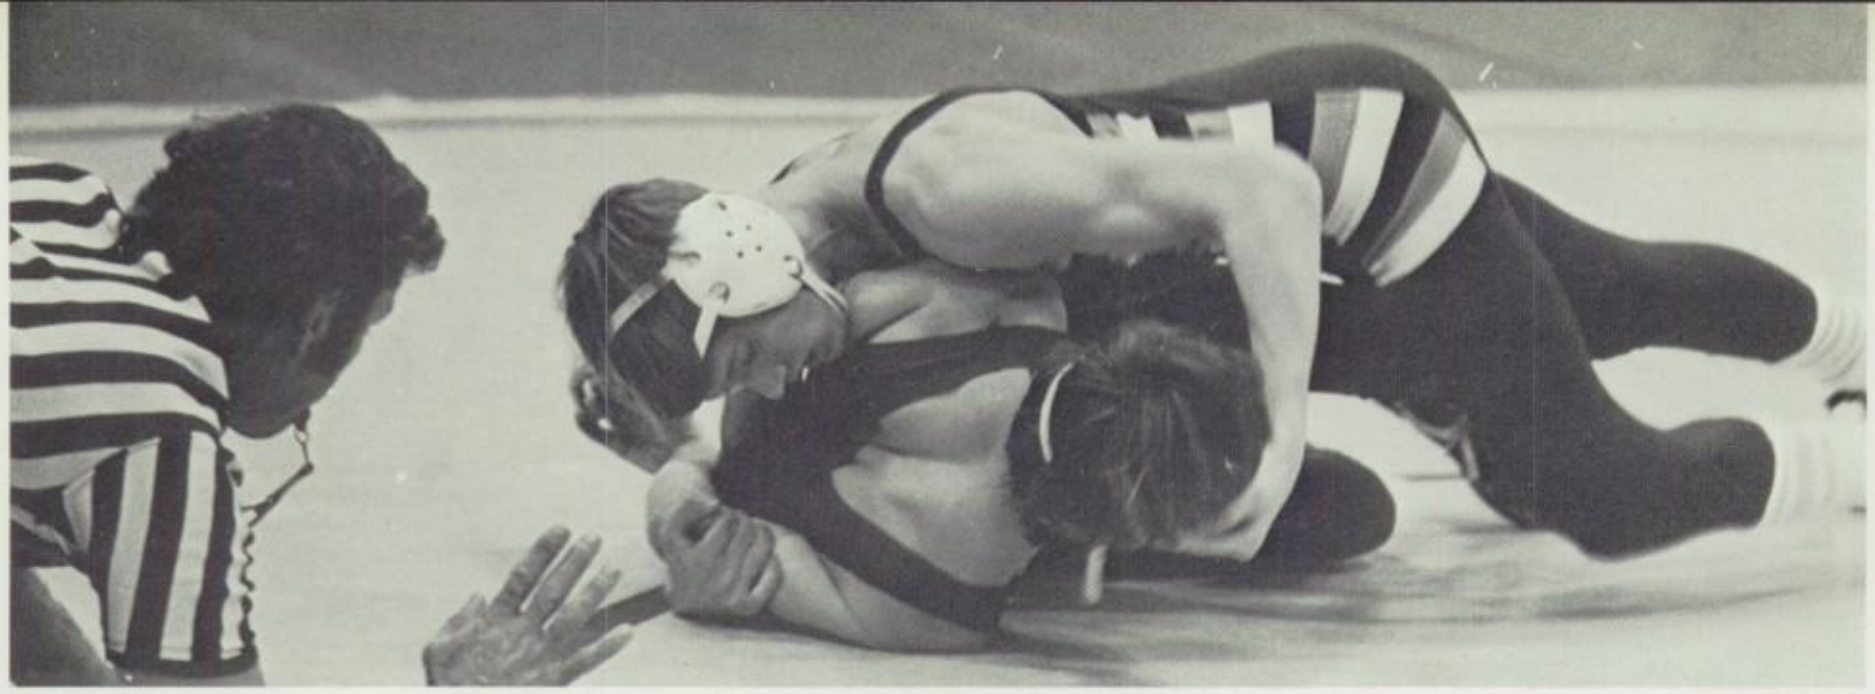
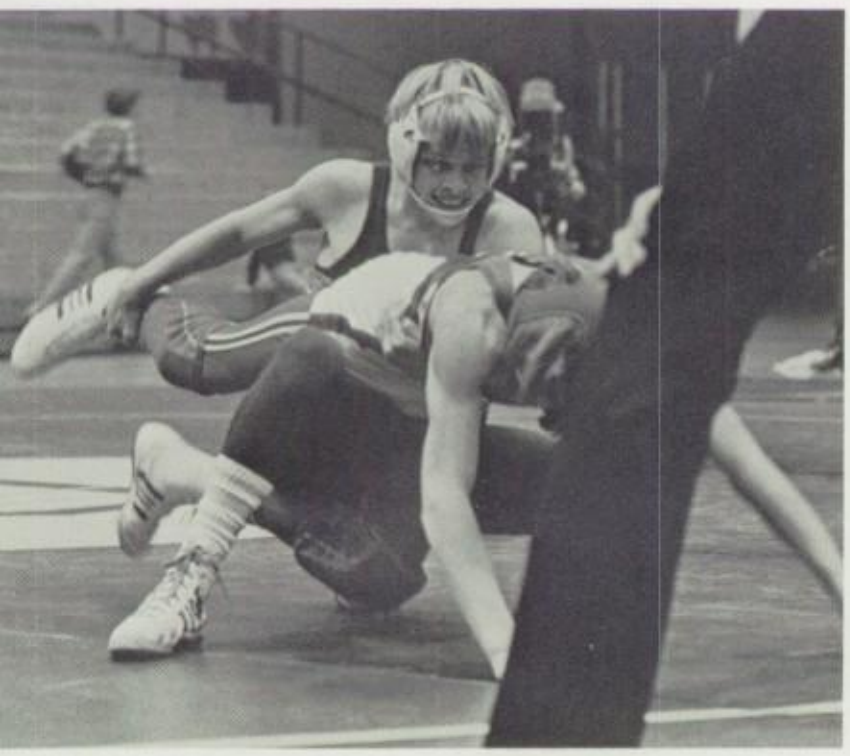
Sophomore Dave McCarthy wrestled his opponent to the ground. McCarthy's record was 10-8-2. Mac got a third place in the conference meet.

After his match, senior Dave Gruse was greeted by the rest of the team. Gruse had 15-3-0 record for the season.

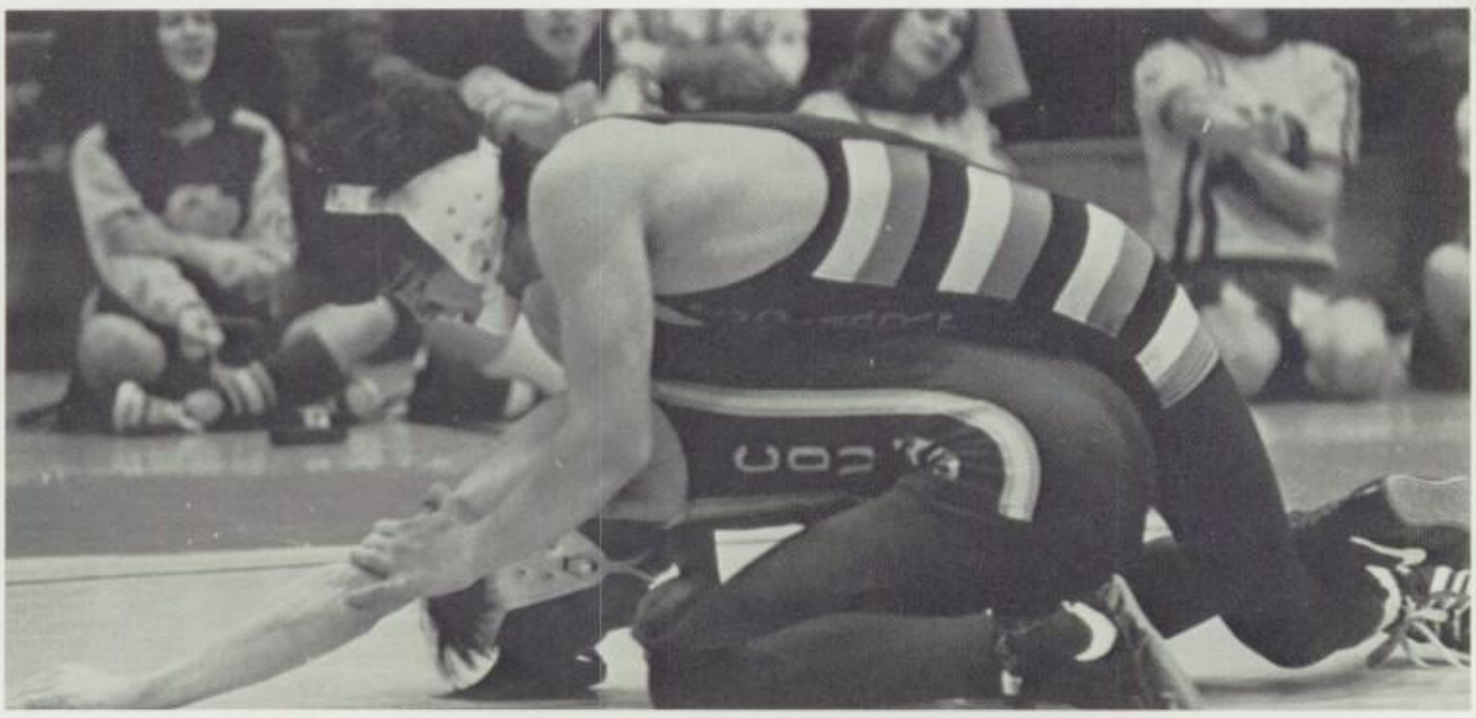


An undefeated Stan Kellenberger went to the mats and came back with another win. Stan, a senior, had a 20-1-0 record and placed second in conference.



Freshman Bruce Bruley drove his opponent into the mat for a win against Kimberly. Bruley won North's first individual championship at conference.

An enthusiastic coach Johnson watched his grapplers wipe out Appleton West. North triumphed 48-16.



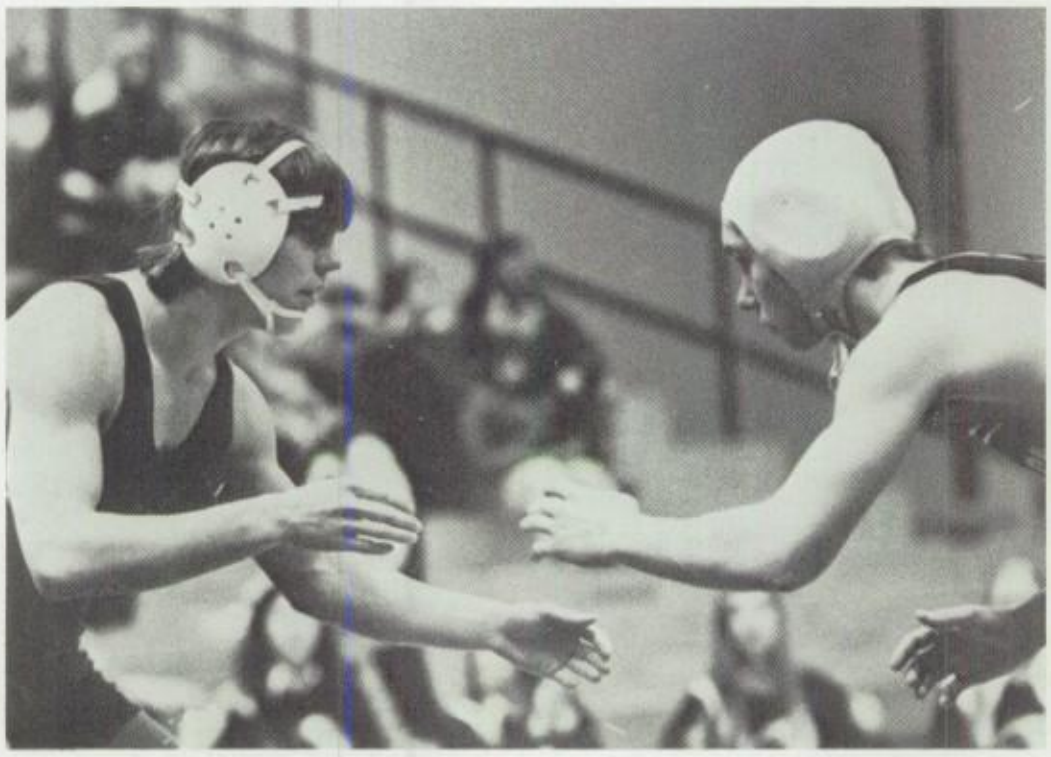
Junior Brad Sessions notched his belt with another win after his match against Campbellsport. Sessions also won an individual championship at conference.

JVs Finished 6-2-2

Under the direction of coaches Jim Buehner and Bill Akan, North's JV wrestling team finished their dual meets with a record of 6-2-2 and took a second place in the Spartan JV Invitational meet, missing a first place by one and a half points.

Sophomore Bruce Kesson was the outstanding wrestler with a record of 11-0-0, including seven pins. Kesson was North's first undefeated JV wrestler and had to his credit the fastest pin in North's history, a 12 second pin. Kesson was also the champion in the 112 pound weight class at the 1975 Spartan JV Invitational.

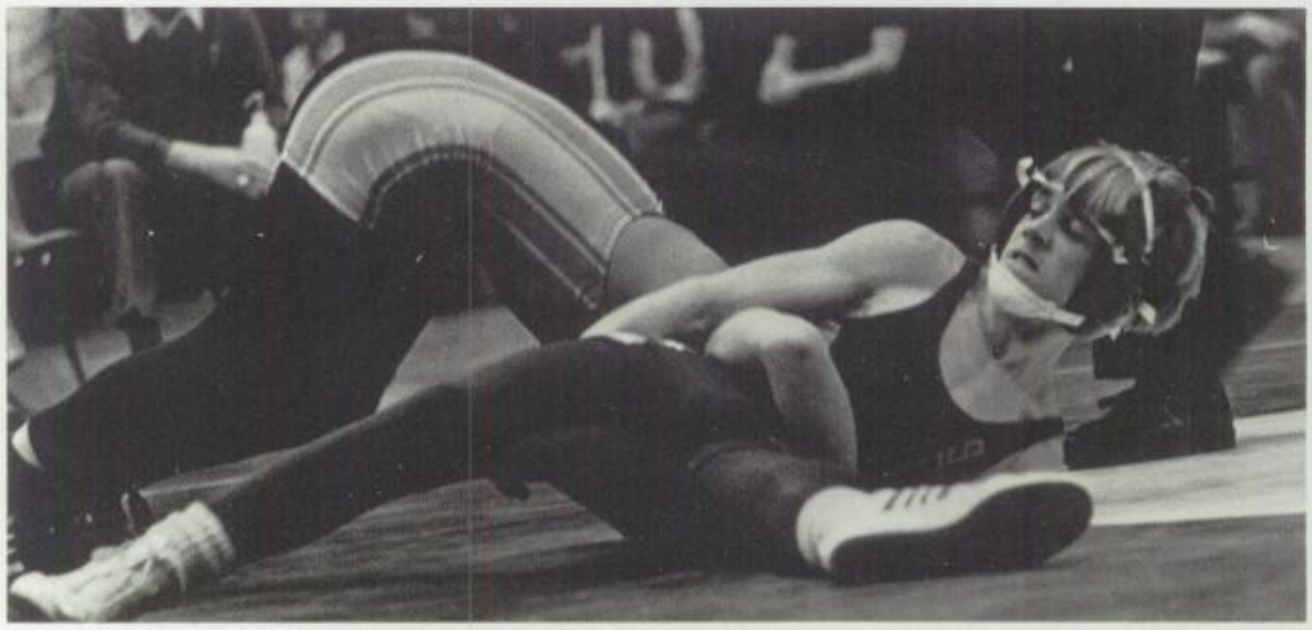
JV WRESTLING TEAM, Row One: J. Harmon, C. Stiff, Mark Gutsmeidel, W. Hightdudis, Scott Struensee, M. Dumdie, Louis Ranieri, Bruce Schnyder, Row Two: Coach Bill Akan, D. Wolf Mgr., T. Coates, J. Williamson, B. Bidwell, M. Guyette, A. Miller, A. Loving, B. Kumbalek, Coach Jim Buehner.



Sophomore Mike Dumdie warily circled his Oshkosh West opponent. Dumdie had a season record of 1-1-0.

Coach Bill Akan looked over sophomore Marshall Guyette during one of the JV matches. Guyette had a 1-2-0 record during the season.

Sophomore Chuck Stiff concentrated on an escape during a match against Oshkosh West. Stiff's season record was 0-4-0.



Girls Hooped To Wins

The girls varsity basketball team suffered several early season losses but came back strong near the finish. Coach Janet Mueller's Spartanettes were led in both scoring and rebounding by juniors Mary Asuma and Jill Strasser. The team was captained by two senior girls, Pam Miller, a leading scorer and Tory Williamson, who led the team in steals.

The J. V. team had an up-and-down season that started with two wins followed by a four-game losing streak. The losing streak ended when North edged Neenah 35-34.

Girls Basketball, Varsity Team, Row One: D. Wicks. Row Two: K. Karow, M. Marx, P. Stiff, P. Bargenquast, J. Strasser, Mary Asuma, S. Franzen, K. Romme, T. Williamson, P. Guptill.

Arden –
You were a lot of fun when I used to sit by you before. Remember all those stupid pictures you used to draw and we'd have to guess what they were? That was funny. Have a great summer. See you around.
Nancy Kuhlert

"Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player,
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more."

William Shakespeare

Sam,
Spanish class was ok, but I don't know if I could take another yr of Mother K. well any how have a great summer and those famous words, Stay Out Of Trouble !
Kevin Degner (76)

Arden,
Have fun this summer
go to races, go fishing, go camping, but you know best Roger Paul.

To Arden Parfett
a kid who I gave a lot of grief to but he's still here even though he hates Congers
John Trask '(7-)'

Arden,
You are a cool dude
Take care this summer and maybe some day
we'll type to get
See ya.
Howie

So Congers

The METRIC system is here so we must be there and so he took a car over to the co get A PLASTIC Flower to PLANT IT by a graveyard to remember
ALL The living and he Bought
A NUT for a total of $6.65 and the came over to the lake to hop a train to get to where he was going so he didn't have to STAY and learn the METRIC system
